Thread: [\[DEV\]{TBH}SMS BOMBER V1\[DEV\]](#)

Jewish - April 27, 2010, 8:32 pm

Ok as you read im currently developing a sms bomber and please dont post useless comments on how "theres already enough sms bombers" because i dont want to hear because im posting anyway

Features&Progress:

Cool GUI : 100%

Easy Tab System : 100%

Sms Bombing Capabilities : 100%

Choose How Many Messages To send :100%

Auto Provider Finder :50%

Victims List : 100%

Over 50 Providers Built In (some may not work)

Heres Some Screenies:

Okay, firstly, I like the tab functionality and ease of use option menu at the top. Now the problem I have with sms bombers, Is the availability (or lack of) providers, because of my locality.

Nonetheless, I shall await It's release and see what It has to offer from there.

Cheers :)

What he means by locality is like his place where he is in the world. Locally I would assume to put in short

Looks good. By the way, does it have providers from the Philippines? (Smart, Globe Telecom, Sun Cellular)

No prob's mate. The provider that I use here In Australia, Is simply called "3", which works on what's called the "3G" network.

To date, I've yet to come across an sms bomber which supports just that.

Thanks mate.

Cheers :)

when are you releasing it??

-mothered- - May 8, 2010, 7:01 am

Yes, I too, have the same question as to It's forthcoming release. Not to worry, I guess I'll have to wait and check back as needed.

Cheers :)
