At the moment no, but if you only use a few no one would know the difference!

i recommend the 8 Achievements Pack as it fills the Featured list!

zDk - December 15, 2013, 12:57 am

So this just sticks the trophies on your page but doesn't actually list how many trophies you have?

Aww do you remember when you scammed me for the method on how to do this? Then made some up excuse for trying to sell a public method?

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3896069>

^ So funny. I think I might make a thread with a nice tutorial on how to do it since it is a public method ?

Cyber - December 19, 2013, 6:21 am

Wearing this signature to help you out. I'll message you in two weeks starting december 19th 2013 at 930am

Restrict - December 24, 2013, 12:17 pm

Just sent him my account info, waiting for him to add the trophies to my account.

Ill let you guys know.

Magic™ - December 24, 2013, 12:48 pm

Im sorry but this is fucking wrong. You can find the method to do this and I was going to make a thread about it. The trophies arent even in your official lost only in the showcase. Fucking irritating when people who probably don't even play gbs try to ruin it. I'll be posting the method shortly.

There are two methods. I'll release them both. BTW the inspect element method works just as well as this. Your selling fake trophies lol. Hope you keep this service open after I release the methods.

JFein - December 30, 2013, 8:02 am

Stefan told me the achievements would be in the view all trophy case as well as the featured, there not and he is now ignoring my PM's.

This is exactly the same as the Inspect Element method, same result different method and you can be banned.

he just used an entirely new account made minutes before it being done, it's best to use it on a normal account that you use which shows an achievement count
