Sc?rpi? - December 5, 2013, 6:51 am

Welcome to my thread.

I've admittedly purchased eBooks in my past and can confess that most of them are bullshit. You'll probably already have a premeditated opinion that this thread is bullshit too, right?

I'll assert that this method is brilliant. This isn't an eBay method that you'd see everyday. It's unique and isn't any of those windows key or beats headphone ones you come across on the Ebook Bazaar or Premium Seller Section.

PROOF of my sales completed listings from just the past 24 hours:
(yes.. this is real)

INTRODUCTORY PRICE PAYMENT - $20 of;
- BITCOINS (negotiable because of prices changing)
- PayPal

FAQ:

Q. Do I get refunds if this doesn't work?

A. no.

Q. Does this involve any typical eBay methods?

A. NO NO NO! I promise you, money back guarantee, this hasn't been sold on HF and is mega unique.

Q. Is this blackhat?

A. No. This is completely whitehat and legal.

Q. Is there any investment required?

A. Around $5 should be plenty to get you started to make a few hundred a week, then you can branch out and make even more.

Q. Is there a chance I can lose money?

A. Simple answer, no. Long answer, no.

Q. Do I get assistance?

A. Pretty straight forward, but sure if you want.

Q. Is this method autopilot?

A. To an extent, pretty much.

PM for questions or post here!

This method looks really good and will honestly make some decent money if you got the time and a small investment, worth buying as I could see it making a lot in the near future!

Vouch for this ebook.

interested but need to hear vouches based on its content before buying.. will watch this space :)

Now your trying to sell the same product, after saying it's made you "a lot of money" and you can't show any type of earnings, besides the one your friend showed?

Not trying to be rude my friend, but this seems kinda shady. Kinda looks like hes banned, and now ur just posting it to help him out? Seeing how you can't provide proof of your own vouch?

Was interested, till i noticed your "I bought resale rights to this book:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3904632>"

And seen he is banned, and you used his earning proofs, and even vouched for the guide saying it's earned you money.

You really should post some of your own earnings, even if it is less then what he was making. Will really help with sales. The sales are doing fine. As per his ban... He's banned for harassing a member and sales trashing, if you're Ub3r you could see that.

And again, these are my earnings, I just let him use the screen cap.

What could you possibly be selling that cost a $5 investment that ended up selling for $50-$400 multiple times, seems ridiculous to me.

Selling a guide on how to use an xbox one -> 500$ -> people think they buy xbox one -> GG well played.

Sc?rpi? - December 5, 2013, 7:37 pm

No, none of that.

The method plays on public ignorance, they get what they paid for.

Is it anything like "Logans" method? I mean you guys are basically saying the same thing "Public ignorance, they get what they paid for.", though Logan doesn't say that but based of reviews thus far and his OP seems so. So then doesn't your method become greyhat to well on the borderland of white? Won't we just end up with charge backs for payments as well?

There are ways to protect yourself when selling virtual goods on eBay, and for every 5 sales you might get one charge back.

Also, I'm not familiar with Logan's method, so I cannot confirm or deny.

No offence but how many times are people going to sell public shit? Like seriously, it doesn't take a mastermind to figure you're selling software. eBay doesn't allow such things anyway. I also sold 'keys' and 'antivirus' in the past. Yes, there's money in it. It won't last long though.

Hmmm but ebay.com does not really allow virtual items also you are selling a digital item that is NOT software but costs several hundred of $????

How do you avoid that ebay deletes your listing?

For virtual items you need a strong account, that means feedback, transactions, good health, not brand new. Also if items are vero, harder.

But, virtual items can/do work! And they make goooood moneys!!
