Thread: Insane's 8 years on the board and my history \(updated yearly\)

In?sane? - December 6, 2013, 7:01 am

Everyone else is doing it, so why not?

Might add some fluffy design later but at the moment i can't be arsed. Also sorry for the very messy thread, can't be helped.

2008:

Was just lurking around, didn't even sign up for an account.

2009:

So i joined because i was 12 years old looking to become a scumbag of the internet. Was really into everything blackhat back then. I mainly hung around in the tutorial and RAT section of the forum learning as much as i could. Oh boy did i have alot of fun with it though. Other than that i didn't really do much this year.

2010:

Started to get into the forums more, both with posting and making threads. Also around here i got into programming as i thought it was really interesting and saw it as a way of expressing myself. Sadly, i never got far into this.

Everything was so cool back then, when like 50 rep was fucking massive. Now people have like 3.000 rep even though they are completely retarded.

Spoiler (Click to View)

So yeah, the story about the only friend i ever had on this forum. I met this guy helping me out with rats back in 2010 or 2011 i don't remember. We ended up talking everyday on skype and had alot of stuff in common and i really liked him. Sad thing though he was a 12 years old swedish guy that ended up backstabbing me and hacking my account. Since he knew where i lived and what my name was he was spamming me and my irl friends phones and was a major pain in the butt. After this i never even bothered making any friends here.

Oh, and was the year when some kind member upgraded me to ub3r. Sadly i don't remember who he was.

2011:

Here i got into social engineering and also get even more involved with the forum. Also made my own MSN freezer, mass adder and those good stuff. Was a big success for me, earned some money and it was really fun having my own project up that i could work on.

Also got scammed for the first time by this guy:

<https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=363058>

Worked out fine in the end though because he decided to refund me so it was all cool.

Later on i started a project that never saw the light which was a streaming site for Family Guy, Simpsons, Futurama and other good shit with a IRL friend of mine. After a reformat and forgot to backup my crap the project was lost and never revived.

I was aswell very involved with the World of Warcraft community around here and since i had alot of experience with WoW emulation i made my own tutorial on how to make your own WoW server here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=459913>

It was also the first sticky in that section, but once the "Sticky Man Award" came out Omni decided to remove it as a sticky (was the right thing since it was never updated by me).

Also something really amazing happend this year, my HF account was hacked and the hacker decided to donate 1.000 euro to a random guy here and then give me my accounts back. You can read about that here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1434364>

There was also a really funny "wifi hack" for facebook out this year which i had alot of fun with faceraping people in my school with (was one of those schools where you get Macbooks and had 100's of people sitting on facebook 24/7 which made it even more fun):
<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=769270>

I belive this was the year where omni made the april fools joke where people got to fill out a application for Moderator positions to, i ofcourse fell for it and sat down for hours to write a very serious application. Good laugh though.

Made some random programs like a radio player and some basic stuff i released, nothing worth mentioning to be honest. Also made some runescape bot scripts aswell.

Was also the year where i decided to get a dog, and let the community decide the name for it:
<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=1634235>
<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2252451>

2012:

A very fun thing showed up in WoW where you could dupe a very expensive item, i was ofcourse on that like crazy: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2394921>

Got my first tattoo: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2575929>

Destroyed my kneecap while parting x.x: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2667636>

Started my own World of Warcraft gametime shop:
<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=2334315>

Made so much money i didn't even know how i was going to spend it, felt amazing.

2013:

Mainly been fucking around, not much contributing at all. Feel like im sliding away from the forum more and more. But still, here i am.

I feel the forum has turned into a money sucking thing with the "pay for a sticky in whatever section you want hurr" and i don't like it at all.

I also do not care much for blackhat stuff anymore because nowadays your a hacker when you DDoS someone. Jesus.

And god am i tired of people using rep to talk and how upgraded users are treated better than normal ones.

So thats that i think, i left out a couple of stuff though that i don't feel like posting. I am also unsure if anyone even knows who i am these days, most likely not. But there is also a reason why i haven't made more than one "friend" on this forum.

Got invited to Instinct by Vinnie, recieved the Gamer award (which i was craving for, really happy about getting it). Amazing ending to the year.

2014:

Been a really nice year, had a really good time in Instinct for the months i was in here before i went pretty inactive again and got kicked. Not many threads was made but i have been somewhat active on posting and HF has once again made it's home as a permanent chrome tab. Also the year of the new ui and modern userbars, sadly i can't find the threads but the drama was real for sure. The first picked userbars looked absolutely horrible and the community cried out and got it changed to what we have now (still prefer the old ones though, oldschool and stuff<3). Not really all that much to say more than this i think.

2015:

AnimeFAN was made official thanks for Assault and Tweety (<3 you guys), applied and got accepted. Only group i really want to be in nowadays and i love the atmosphere in here. Sadly i can't join in on the anime nights being hosted even though i really want to (foken murica times) until my house move has been done. Mostly still just hanging about in the gaming section and on AA/AF at the moment. Was accepted to Pirates 31st May. Was accepted to Void 30th of July. Was accepted to Archive the 3rd of August, absolutely love how this group is being ran and i am having very fun so far in the group. Honestly these days i'm only visiting for the group sub-forums and don't really pay attention to the public forums, i like the higher quality posts, things you learn and all the interesting people you meet from the groups.

Managed to get scammed a second time ayy: Scammed by Maaaaaad uid=1584216 137 USD

2016 (so far):

Started becoming active again after a well needed break, been a little all over the place with groups but managed to haul my Swedish ass in writ3rs which I'm really happy about, currently helping with wiki work flagging incorrect articles and I currently have 217 flags as of 29-11-16. Like the group a lot, definitely my preferred way to contribute to the forums.

Got the Pokéball award after like 10 posts in the section, can't say I'm a fan since it completely rinsed the section of quality.

Groups:

Enigma - Was in for a while before the rebrand, had some leader shenanigans and was in a pretty chaotic state. Hope the rebrand is going well for you guys!

The Order - Never seen a faster moving Lounge before, lovely group! Was in for some time but couldn't dedicate the time I wanted because of real life and was probably removed for inactivity, best of luck to y'all and thanks for my time there!

Fusion - Generic vidya group #43

Royalty - Was in here for a while but honestly don't have to much to say about the group.

Illuminati - Joined a few days ago and I'm really settling in, probably going to turn out to be my home group for however long it lasts.

Baka - Haven't seen to many AF og's in there but is probably a good group, hope you shitters have a good time and be prepared to get negged by a bunch of neckbeards.

Old 2013 shit:

Spoiler (Click to View)

Not been to much into the groups here on HF but here is my history and opinions.

Oh, and i was used to the old groups so don't really have much to say about the new ones.

Old groups:

RAT Crew: Was the first group i got accepted into, not sure where it went though.

Gamers: Miss this group, had a good time in it and the gaming groups that exists now (with application) is nothing for me.

Haunter Gang: Jesus was this a fun group, trolled around everywhere. Sadly they recharged though.

Fly By Night: One of the groups im actually interested in. Sadly i don't think they are into video editing? Anyways always good to have a graphics group around. Used to be in it when it was called Graphics Masters.

Innovation: Was in the group when it was called Respawn, i thought it was really badly managed and ended up not caring for it whatsoever.

Legion: Seems like a cool bunch of people, also led by Vinnie which seems like a awesome dude.

Red Lions: Only met one guy from here which was back in 2011 or so which i sold websites and other shit to. Pretty decent guy but also a real pain in the ass at the same time. Other than that i don't really have an opinion.

#@&%!: Looks like a cool group, been looking for a gaming group but they don't take applications which i also see as a good thing.

Brotherhood: Back when they were called Marketers i didn't like them at all, for various reasons. How they are now i don't really know since as you may already noticed im not really up to date with groups.

Complexity, Dynasty, Empire, Void, The Alliance and Infamous: No opinion.

Skill: Seen them around in the gaming section, absolutely clueless what they are on about. Don't really like them.

143: Seems like a nice group, always liked the idea of invite only groups.

Writ3rs: Always fun reading threads from Sir.

HJT Team/MRT: Amazing group, got help from them before when i was infected.

I like stories much more than the feedback. Thanks for the read OP.

Omniscient - December 6, 2013, 9:56 am

Good feedback story. Interesting you have a timeline showing your evolution but I think in a couple years you'll look at 2013 more positively than you do now. You'll probably complain about what's sucking in 2015 and look favorably at this year.

Tee-hee, I don't lead this group anymore, I backed down a while ago, tbh I personally think the group was much better then when it was limited to skilled members apart from #Skyline ?, though still I give him credit for being such a numpty and giving us random lols on a daily basis, he was defo the group clown. Well you get what I mean, way too many students in the group who think they're godly in the art of hacking, hell don't geet me started with the teachers ?.

May very well be true actually, took a good turn with today i must say.

Time flies by haha. Idea was to just update it once a year to not keep it spammy, but update it every once in a while works as well.

Would absolutely not mind joining a gaming group but i'm unsure how the group is and stuff at the moment, at the moment im just playing csgo at pleb tier rank and wow so clueless if i will be able to find people to play with or have any interesting discussions so not sure if i'm a good fit or not. Going to look around a bit and see what it's all about and maybe just do so. ?

It's a little lacks off the gaming, mostly chilling now and just having fun around the forum. I am sure that you'll find many members in Nightfall that'll play with you, especially League & Cs;go those nerds can't stop talking about that.... and RS07.

Should've created your account in 2008 when you had the chance, then you could be an old 08-fag like me ?

But seriously, great thread man, it was a good read.

Hello Para! Your like one of the only old fags I actually remember from way back when, looked up to you a lot in the early days so I'm really glad to see your alive and kicking to mate.
