Looks pretty legit. Just a tip that Steam page rep does not mean anything as people can just bot comments.

Anyways, good luck with sales.

Terribly sketchy looking. Use caution doing large deals; he doesn't go first and refuses to use a middleman even with a trusted member. No scam reports or anything, just a little shady.

Best of luck with sales, regardless.

I genuinely couldn't understand what you were saying there, but your rep is irrelevant. You are a less than reputable user and refuse to go first or use a reasonable safe alternative that is good for both parties.

Just so you know, your rep on steamreps means jackshit, it is of no relevance on HF. You can't just transport rep from steamtrades to here. It's funny,
