Recruitment failed due to lack of interest and activity proved to be an issue as well. This being said, I wasn't in the group for the last few weeks of its existence so idk if anything happened during that time.

Dynasty and INTRA have nothing in common. INTRA was established back in 2010. ;)

As a matter of fact, I've seen you two times in total. You never ever chatted.

Here's a blast from the past ..lol

Good luck reforming the group, hope old members are as helpful as before. ?

Mx. - December 17, 2013, 6:53 pm

Everyone that applied so far will get noticed within 3 days if all members voted.

If your voted for yes, it means you will have to complete some challenges to prove your skills, if you pass that your in.
