I assure you they are fake beats you are ripping people off probably buying their kids something for christmas. No one is going to sell you a pair of beats for 10-50 dollars.

Also the rep they give you will most likely neg which will probably ruin your trustworthiness

On an ipad

"No one is going to sell you a pair of beats for 10-50 dollars."

Apparently they offer me $93. So next time, please don't post ?

$93 that could mean they were legitimate but why were you so excited about $50 then?

You obviously didn't read his post thoroughly.

No one is going to SELL you a pair of BEATS for 10-50 dollars, correct.

"Apparently they offer me $93". Your English is shit.

They offered you $93, yes indeed, because they thought the FAKE Beats you're selling were real.

You BOUGHT FAKES for $10-50, and sold them as REAL for $90.
Now do you understand what he wrote?
So next time, please don't post. ?

Also, you're fucking trash for selling fake products. It's funny, because if you say, bought fake Beats and thought they were real, you'd be fucking crying if you found out they were fake.

Illuminati? - December 7, 2013, 10:36 am

Damn, lots of hate going on.

You did an awesome job. Next time it's louis vuitton fake bags.

Just kidding, I wouldn't go that far because people could chargeback knowing it's fake when they get it.

That would be bad.

joneh heil - December 7, 2013, 12:08 pm

I don't see why people are hating. ?

I haven't made anything wrong.

1. I never said they are real or fake anywhere in the sale page.
2. If i am selling it for $50 people might be clever enough to know they're not real or fake. (i don't know myself if they're real or fake)
3. If they are fake and they thought they were real, chargeback the shit out of me if you want.
