Hiya mate.

I recently started a new Steam account due to my old on having been hacked, and besides a couple of random humble bundle games, I don't have anything to amuse myself with. DayZ seems to be just the thing I need.

Thanks a ton, and best of luck to all entering,

I want this game because I recently got a new computer and I'd like to push it to the max :>

Vittorio - December 15, 2013, 5:52 am you should give this to me bcuz you came from a alien planet after your planet was being attack and a guy named tyrone put you in a space shuttle landing you into earth then when you discovered drugs, your first drug was lsd that made you go crazy because you didn't know the feeling, after that a family was driving by seeing you trippy balls them picking you up keeping you as their own raising you as a human so people wouldn't know you're a alien baby, after so you found out about the internet which lead you to join hackforums, no one has the slightest clue that you are a alien and you have the biggest secret no one will guess that is why you're willing to give out arma 2 to anyone because money is useless to you because you're a alien and aliens don't need money because they are a real niggas and that you tyrone saved your life to give me Arma 2 while you left he whispered to himself "give Darko Arma II" than he got shot, you swore to avenge him and to do so you gotta give me arma 2
