Thread: Facebook GDI Theme \(14 Controls\)

Nextrum - December 14, 2013, 6:10 pm

Hi guys,

I'd just like to start by stating that this is my first theme ever and in GDI so this will most likely have issues and stuff. So please bare that in mind and don't bash me too much.

As it currently stands (15/12/2013) there are a total of 14 controls (that are totally colour customisable) and I do plan on expanding on that in the next couple of days or so. Also you have to bare in mind that some of these items actually aren't on the Facebook page so I had to use my imagination on some of them (checkbox), I do know the progressbar is not correct but on the update I will add a second version that is. I have plenty of ideas for controls but as I mentioned this is my first theme so I am still expanding my knowledge.

Screenshot of Control List and Controls:

Pastebin Link for the theme - <http://pastebin.com/qBpEDG0y#>

If you use any of the code then please credit me.

If any issues are found then please PM me them so I can try and fix them as soon as possible.

Credits - iSynthesis - Gave me ideas for design of controls (from his/her Flat UI theme)

Temploit - For releasing awesome controls that inspired me.

GammaRay - Inspiring me with the Avast 2014 theme!

Hope you enjoy it and please leave a comment behind.

Thanks

I noticed some minor resemblance to the Avast theme so thank you for including me in the credits. Great first theme and good luck with future themes!

P.S I started working on something similar 2 days ago.

Thanks for the reply, I'm glad that you think it's good.

New update guys - added a separator and another progressbar (the one that is used when uploading pictures).

Changed the pictures and updated the pastebin paste. Enjoy! ?

great job on the theme, i really like it, but the close button could be smaller :)

Looks good, although I am not sure I am a fan of the radio button and the checkbox. Also, I think the font looks kind of funny. Try using a smoother font.

Thanks and if you go into the code and change the font size and then you can change the location. I might make it so that the user can choose the size at a later point.

Thanks for the comment and I might make a couple more styles so you lot can choose from them. And I will have a play with the font too see if a better one will fit correctly.

Thank you so much. It's so nice . I love it ...

Doctor07 - December 17, 2013, 9:17 am

Not bad, not bad at all!

It's definitely better to the other Facebook themes that people sloppily threw together.

Yeah I chose to spend quite a bit of time on it too make it so that it looked decent enough. I will still change bits and pieces as I go along. Thanks for the comment.

Looks nice... I like the chat window and chat bubbles; It would be nice for a chat application.

gigajew - December 19, 2013, 8:09 am

You should make a label control as well, it's simple and it saves time. Other than that, great job on the theme.
