Thread: [\[Free\] GDI Service - Custom Themes and Controls](#)

Hawk HF - December 15, 2013, 12:55 pm

My Goal

The idea is pretty simple. You request a theme or custom control and I make it - free of charge. The goal of this service is to provide you with whatever custom GUI you may want and cure my boredom.

Collection of Themes and Controls

Please note that many of the themes and controls require Aeonhack's Themebase 1.5.4.

Shout out to Perplexity for his GIF recorder, Giffy.

Some screenshots and GIFs have been removed because the amount of images that can be placed on the thread is limited.

I forgot who suggested this one or where I got it from. Let me know if it was you and show some evidence and I'll rename the theme after you!

Most controls have a custom property that allows for the color to be changed to either orange or green Credits to Mavamaarten~ for this one. I used his Crystal Clear textbox and made some major changes to it.

There's about 1000 lines of code to this theme, so I added in a little anti-leech measure that will only appear when you are editing your project.

Requesting a Theme or Control

Post a screenshot or sample of what you want below and describe what you want it to do. Also include any details that a screenshot can't describe, such as a glow effect or any other animations. Include as much information as possible! Be sure that if you're requesting an entire theme, that you post a screenshot that displays all of the controls that you want. Also list out what controls you want. I don't want to make more controls than you'll use as it would be a waste of time.

Do not PM me about this! Post it here!

PMs pertaining to this thread will be ignored.

If you request a theme to be made, I will post here to inform you if I will make it.

I will try to make everything that gets requested, but it depends on how far behind I am and if your request is actually worth making

Receiving Your Theme or Control

Since this service is free, I will release whatever I have created to the HF community. There are no exceptions to this. I am a believer in open source projects. New GDI coders can learn from examples. After completing a theme or control, I will edit this post and place it at the bottom. There will be a screenshot and a .gif of the control as well as a pastebin link. There will be no surveys or adf.ly links. I know they're annoying.

Coding Takes Time!

If I decide to take on the project to complete your theme or control, the coding will take time to do. Please realize that coding a theme takes much more time than requesting one and I do expect to fall behind in offering this service. I will PM you and post here to notify you that your control or controls have been created.

Would be interesting if you could extend some controls of existing themes, for example adding a text-align property to buttons in the Net Seal Theme :P

Nahh. I don't plan on editing any existing themes.
I might consider recoding some of my older ones, though.

Wow, you have guts, appreciated.

Well, I will ask for something pretty difficult, i have tried to do something similar but it wasn't the same.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)[img]http://i.epvpimg.com/hVkMb.png[/img]

It's the progress bar from the default music player widget from android version 4.0.4.

The tricky thing that I couldnt do was these little fuzzy "balls" that flow upwards while the music is playing.

If you could do something similar you would be my hero.

Thank you again for this amazing service.

It will certainly be a challenge to create the glowing orbs, but I'll give it a shot.

Sounds awesome, I would like to see something like this

[\[img\]http://cdn.sixrevisions.com/0140-02_transparent_glass_ui_pack_preview.jpg\[/img\]](#)

if you could do this for me, i would be speechless.

Cairns - December 15, 2013, 1:44 pm

Vouch for Hawk. I required a button of my wishes which I was willing to pay for, and I received a private message containing my custom button which was free. The button was greater than I expected, and most of all greater than the original work I wanted to copy basically. Thank you very much Hawk, and seen as you are doing more work I would like another thing if possible. I will also pay if required, but if not at least it gives you something to do!

I would like a tab control like this:

<http://images.devs-on.net/Image/GJ14yenB9AQcWXos-Region.png>

The blue line glow is shown when the tab is active. I would like to be able to change that if possible.

And last of all a button like this (That supports images and text):

<http://images.devs-on.net/Image/jfLnP3km1YmR0ahT-Region.png>

Thank you very much if you can find the time to do it!!

I like the look of that, I'll do that right after I finish up Genius's progress bar. :D

It's incredibly smooth and glossy. That will be hard to do in VB, but I'll see what I can do, man.

Thanks for the request.

I think you will regret this service. Even if you close the thread, there will be people that keep asking you to do work for them. In addition, you will get backed up on jobs, and instead of it being a learning experience, it will just be tedious.

Vizual X - December 15, 2013, 3:49 pm

This is an awesome service you have here.

I think a theme based off of this design would be awesome. It is simple and professional looking imo.

[img]http://img13.imageshack.us/img13/7233/6yb6.png[/img]

Controls to include:

- Container (Rounded corners with the same look)
- Button
- Groupbox
- Listbox
- ListView If you Can
- Progressbar
- Trackbar
- On/Off Switch
- Radiobutton
- Checkbox
- Textbox
- Dropdown
- NumericUpDown
- Tab Control
- And maybe some of those other custom controls in the screenshot like the media buttons, file browse box thing, and those other types of trackbars.

I know it is a lot but I think this would be an amazing theme if it had all those controls. I know I would use every single one of those controls and I think a lot of other people would too.

That looks simply Amazing!

I sort of wish we could re-size the height, so that we could have the orbs going to the height of the form, but i'm guessing that you put that height limitation due to the fact that it will already use up a fair amount of memory, considering it is a single control. (Watching the Memory Usage for one of my applications which is normally 16Mbs, jump between 21Mbs and 26Mbs, while the progress bar increases and decreases on a 100ms/tick timer)

It probably has more to do with the fact that it would have to be turned into a container control to render the orbs behind other controls.. well, without making said controls look ugly. :)

Exactly.

The orbs were a pain, but it was still fun to make.

I had to leave room on top of the progressbar to allow the orbs to rise.
Unfortunately, Visual Basic is not a very "visual" language.

I just finished up the theme that Calvv requested.
I think it looks pretty good overall.

Unfortunately, I'm behind on all of these great requests, so I had to leave a few controls out.

Enjoy!

I just finished the button that Cairns suggested.
It was fairly simple and I think it turned out pretty well.

That's quite a difficult task.

I code more on the graphical side of things, rather than the functionality, but I can guarantee that any controls that I provide will work properly. I don't want to accept a challenge that I can't complete and hand out a half-broken control to everyone.

Having said that, I don't think I'll be able to make a customized listview with checkboxes. ?

However, I do have an update with the theme you're speaking of.
Its coming along nicely.

Its almost exactly what's shown in the example that was provided.

I'm gonna get some sleep for tonight. I'll be back at it tomorrow!

I would if i could, but havn't taken the chance to learn GDI+, nor do i have any artistic abilities :P

Btw, how would you mdfiy the GeniusProgressBar to have the orb's start position's randomized? (Tried having 2 instances of the bar, and they end up having the exact same orb positions...which looks a bit weird.. lol)

Looking at the source, it would appear to be in the SlowAnimate function...?

Theres a custom property, OpenFileDialog, that allows you to select an openfiledialog from your project.

I see what youre saying though. It would error out if there wasnt one.

Just fixed it. thanks for pointing it out.

I had a go at this one for you, please bare in mind I am still fairly new to GDI -

My Version Image -

My Version Download - Will be released shortly.

I will change the colours of the next version to fit the original more in the next release.

It doesn't look exactly like it but until I have more time to finish it properly it will have to do. If I get round to it I might make a whole theme from it. Should I?

Anyway use it however you want, just give credits that all I ask. I might have a go at the other ones tomorrow/ the day after.

As kungfuupandaa said it just means that it has been redeclared so all you have to do is delete one of them.

If however, you mind doing that if you recopy my course from the pastebin it will now work fine.

Everyone please bare in mind that the default colour you should use on the background is 54,54,54. So please use that till I possibly get a formcontainer made.

Don't put the textbox's so close to the button (spred them out a little more), that's a problem with designing a control. As far as I know there is no fix for it.

Also just pushed a fix for the textbox issue, it's now fixed.

- Customizable Text for the 2 "Columns" (Top and Bot side)
- Over time, it "scroll over" to the left, by Time.
- When Cursor/Mouse is hover one bar it change colors to appeal interest and show the value.
- Possibility to show the Columns/Group Names and the last value inserted.
- Resizing the bars when bigger value got Added, or Removed.
- Working like an Listbox, Add, Remove.
- Possibility to work just with one Column/Group

This is interesting and new. And i like that.

I'll try to make this after I finish the theme requested by Bonfire.

I actually just learned how to incorporate enums into properties to get a drop down property.
It was easier than I thought. ?

Yeah they are brilliant, a-lot more specific to some-things instead of boolean or integer property responses. If you check my work you find I use them quite abit :) anyhow I'll have a theme for you too add to the thread shortly:)

The cool thing about bootstrap is the navigation/tab control, do that.

Temploit - January 28, 2014, 6:28 am

I created a bootstrap theme-ish not long ago. I made it so yo can have those multiple items next to each other. I also reinvented the ContextMenuStrip with a full GDI one which functions exactly the same as the regular one, but completely customizable.

The colors are kinda mixed up due to the gif recorder, but they look exactly like the real ones (inner glow and all).
