After creating my new eBook this user sent me this message:

[IMG]<http://img707.imageshack.us/img707/2818/gmzq.png>[/IMG]

I agreed to sell him for half-price because my sales thread was BRAND new and I wanted to get some reviews to hopefully boost the sales. He sends the money without a problem and we are both happy.

Later I checked out my paypal account and notice that the payment this user sent me is marked as "held."

Proof:

I love how he put his name as a little note. it really helped me verify that it was him who held the payment. Thanks for making this easier.

I message him and ask why the payment was held and this is what he replied with:

First of all, my guide isn't public knowledge, I know this because I came up with this guide all by myself and I would NEVER sell any LQ content to you all. Secondly, even if you didn't like the eBook or it didn't work for you(this is the only user that has given me any problems) then that doesn't give you the right to hold the cash just because you didn't like it. That's like buying a brand new tv, claiming you don't like it, and taking it back to the store to get your money back while keeping the tv. Its just not right. Also let me add that if you are so pathetic that you would scam for $2.50, then you really need to get a real job. Even though the amount of money that was scammed is small, it is still indeed a scam, and ALL scammers should be punished.

I will remove this thread when I get the money you owe me.

That is all.

I still have not received any money from this user. Hopefully this all gets settled...

If the method really is public knowledge, you shouldn't be selling it.

However, he should have asked for a refund before charging back.

I came up with this method 100% by myself and have searched everywhere without finding it so I'm sure it's not public knowledge. How he explainedmy eBook was completely inaccurate. He just doesn't know what to do because he got caught scamming.

MaxiPads889 - December 17, 2013, 2:02 pm

No dude you should NOT be selling this for fucks sake its ridiculous. Im not concerened over $2.

diiaz - December 17, 2013, 2:04 pm

Lmao $2,50 definately getting dem stacks man.

Turnover - December 17, 2013, 2:26 pm

Well, it was sort of your fault for purchasing the eBook Maxi- you shouldn't have purchased it until it had some vouches/reviews which were HQ. It was sort of your fault and you shouldn't have disputed before asking.

But still, @French- you shouldn't have sold a known method on here. So I think, being a kind guy- you should refund Maxi and close the dispute.

MaxiPads889 - December 17, 2013, 3:25 pm

I purchased it as a review copy, discounted aswell.

I am tempted to just post this guide here because its public anyways.

I am going to close the dispute as people are neg-repping me for this without knowing the story

Cheers

Maxi

How many times do I have to explain that this method isnt known?! He is just upset that he got caught scamming so he is trying to ruin my sales. He even told me that in a PM

To be honest your other spreading method you were selling for $2.5 is very well known and public. Please do not lie. From what I heard from MaxiPads889 about asking him some things about this it seems to be the same method I bought.

The method can be found on this forum by MANY threads. Maxipads889 also confirmed it is the same ebook I bought from French Toast. I will however not say the method.

So you're saying that the website I used is omegle? That isn't true man. Do you see the exact website I used all over forums? What about the tools I use? Do you see those anywhere? Just wondering because I have never seen it
