Does anyone have this source

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=392231>

Or any other forum poster source?

I need to learn Web stuff

Thanks?

"I need to learn web stuff", you mean, vb.net for web?

iMalware - December 18, 2013, 6:54 am

No. WebRequest, WebBrowser, Post etc...

You are the fucking cancer of this section. Have you ever thought to go look shit up or did you not get enough oxygen at birth to enable you to do so?

I thank you for saying this. I'm sick to the back teeth of people expecting shit to get put into their hands. I mean, it's not as if they ask for a snippet. They are looking for a whole project which fries my man titties.

Off topic, but I need to get your attention.

You should really keep your PMs enabled]:

I just found this source

<http://pastebin.com/QiJQxgqp>

I tried it on a forum

I get exceptions like Object reference not set to an instance of an object.

Learn to code first before using someone elses code.

iMalware - December 18, 2013, 11:48 am

I was only testing it. Anyone help me with this?

Only3 - December 18, 2013, 11:56 am

why u use webbrowser for webreq post for the error add new instance ident - December 18, 2013, 11:56 am

Your on my skype though.... il add you to the accepted list, do you realize how many "can you help" pms i get.

If I'm correct, you're not allowed to use bots on HF.

iMalware - December 18, 2013, 12:09 pm

I did not create that and i will Never use this on HF.

Only3 - December 18, 2013, 1:15 pm

ur box full

there many problems with this code and also not simple with webreq (u need to get post data ... cookie)

first cloudflare second the captcha and u have problem with block ips

iMalware - December 18, 2013, 1:17 pm

Yeah sorry about that. Maybe you can fix it and post it here if it is possible?

Only3 - December 18, 2013, 1:37 pm

if u looking for fourm login then check few pages back for fb thread about webreq post

iMalware - December 18, 2013, 1:38 pm

I'm getting an exception here

Code `WebBrowser1.Document.GetElementById("subject").SetAttribute("value", "[Test]")`

Help me out?
