Won't the leads be reversed if they saw that EPC's high?

It actually depends on the network if you have a good relationship with the Network and most just fake the traffic like send fake hits to the link directly to minimize the epc.

What PPD site do you recommend using this with?

hugo BOSS. - December 23, 2013, 8:47 am

Might i ask you what is this exactly? Im kinda new to this..

It's a survey locker.

if your into monetizing through cpa or ppd you can use this to get a guaranteed lead from the infected person you have.

but i don't think this has a dead switch option so it's bypass able though.

Sharecash or Fileice are the ones I have had the best results with, you can do any site you would like

But this is most likely Blackhat if it forces you to do the Survey to use your PC?

Im not really into Blackhat, its kinda Immoral..

Yes it does cover in blackhat. and if you use these on networks they may take leads to be reversed.
