Thread: Elegant GDI Theme \(17 Controls\)

Nextrum - December 25, 2013, 4:24 am

Opening Paragraph -

Hi guys, I was working on just the textbox and the button and then I just got carried away with it. I now don't have the motivation to finish the theme fully at the minute and let's face it green of this shade isn't easy to work with so I thought I would share what I have for it. I know the theme isn't as good as the LogIn theme that I did but I have added new things to this one that I hope you enjoy.

All of the properties are more or less changeable via the properties window. Due to an issue with the DropDownSeperator I had to add a property for you too change it's height, so please bare that in mind.

Unique controls include -

Theme Container (w/ built in control box)

Radial ProgressBar (rotation-angle and starting-angle changable)

StatusBar (ability too have 3 labels and other cool stuff)

DropDownSeperator (great for log in forms)

Control Screenshot -

There are a total of 17 controls that are supplied with the theme. These are;

Theme Screenshot -

Here's a overall screenshot of all the controls;

Starting Request -

I made the theme due to this request for the log in textbox and buttons - - and when I made them I choose to go on and fully finish it.

look perfect GDI theme. thanks respect for publish free ?

Cairns - December 25, 2013, 4:38 am

Theme looks amazing mate. Lot's of controls, work, and effort put into this. Great job

SaketSaket - December 25, 2013, 5:27 am

You made green look good in theme... Nice work friend... ;)

?Eatos - December 25, 2013, 5:40 am

Another great theme by Xertz... You are awesome man!

velox - December 25, 2013, 6:05 am

Looks great, I have an idea though. Why don't you do what you did with the the LogIn theme progress bars being integrated into the buttons? The titled list box and group box could have that too because it already looks like it. Regardless, great work!

Nextrum - December 25, 2013, 6:20 am

Thanks all of you for your kind words they mean alot.

I love that idea. I will definitely think about implementing that! :)

Again, looks great ;) But to be honest, it's not really appealing for actual use in my opinion. Everything is gray, and even the green has a gray-ish shade. It's hard to distinguish things. I think it would be better if the dark was just a little bit darker.

Yeah it was so hard to make things mix with that green style Too light and it looked silly and didnt match, too dark and the same. If someone gets a good colour scheme and sends me the coee I will be sure to apply it and credit them. I might have a play soon and see if I can make it look better. Thanks for the comment though :)

No problem. Just trying to make this are HQ and supply decent themes with multiple controls and options. Thanks for the comment :)

Eh, looks a bit too bulky for me. Almost like the DPI was cranked up really high and the screen resolution was set really low... What's up with that scrollbar though for the listbox? And it's also hard to read the text for that notification control on the bottom right.

AMAZING! Reminds me of Linux Mint :) Great share homie :)

BlackLayer - December 25, 2013, 1:20 pm

do you can modify theme from listbox scrollbar?

?XilluX - December 25, 2013, 1:20 pm

Looks really great ! I will check this out :)

What do you mean? Do you mean can you change the scrollbar?

And thanks too everyone else. I know this theme isn't too everyones tasting due to the colours but I wanted to stick to the original colour scheme so I didn't change it.

Hello,

Thanks for that awesome Theme, i like it!

Edit:

OMG I'm so very stupid. It was my fail. :D It works perfectly.

Ace of Spades - January 16, 2014, 5:58 am

I love this theme, but I would probably pay hands down for a dark counterpart to it. Lol.

Great job man ?

?ICE? - January 16, 2014, 1:25 pm

Nice job on the theme, looks amazing :)
