Sorry, wouldn't make any sense for me to drop the price as I currently have more demand than supply.

I could even easily raise the price to perhaps 15$ but I just decided to keep it as it's always been.

Also, I make sure my accounts are inactive enough not to get recovered hence this decision about the price.

Until the moment none of the hundred's I've sold was recovered.

Care buying accounts from this user, I bought 3 accounts, 2 of them got recovered, semi-active ones, $10 each...

I asked for a refund or replacement, he offered me 1 that got recovered 2 days after...

Then he tricked me into closing a dispute in order to offer me a replacement once he got stock, I was dumb and I closed, making me lose 1 of the 3 disputes, currently 2 disputes going on paypal.

I have full proof, all pm's, all account match history's, after the user recovery the accounts he plays ARAM's to secure them.

Anyways, not saying he's not a trusted seller, just saying what happened to me, in order to prevent you from the same thing.

Have a nice day!

Edit: He added the Might be recovered on the $10 accounts recently, when I bought them it didn't say that.

Just finished some coding in order to avoid payments being made and no accounts received.

The shop now automatically changes to no stock when there is no stock left for the category you're wanting to buy.

This also saves me a ton of time and makes things even more automatic.

I'm also coding a self control panel in order to be easier to add accounts.

There will be stock for all categories soon, I might rise inactive and semi inactive price a little since they go too fast.

Simple answer would be no for various reasons, despite what I stated above people would abuse it to get double accounts regardless of the account working or not.

Official answer as of now is no until I put together some Terms of Service.

Although it's not 100% accurate I do have a way of knowing if the account actually got recovered or not, so I can say I'll be happy to replace the account IF I consider the account was recovered.

I do plan in extending the shop to all regions, all being BR EUNE EUW LAN LAS NA OCE RU TR JP SEA KR and PBE.

Only reason I haven't done so yet is because the regions missing are not too requested and I've been getting some requests on the current regions so haven't had the opportunity to extend yet.

Meanwhile you can request an account for a specific region you wish while I don't extend the shop to every region. ?

tl;dr

Currently "all" common regions, but will extend to actually "all" soon.

Added a small quantity of stock to NA and EUW while I process the accounts.

All accounts at the moment in NA and EUW Unverified are prior to 31 December 2016.

Keep contacting me if you need an account with specific criteria.

~Update to Verified Accounts~

- All Verified accounts are now guaranteed to be inactive atleast since 31/12/2016.

- Price raised from 3.5$ to 5.5$

This is done to increase the quality of the shop. Although I never got a complain about verified accounts (people knew what they were buying) I decided it's much better to sell inactive verified since they will last way longer.

High quality unverified EUNE accounts inactive since season 1 added to the shop! Feel free to buy now!

Buklau - March 13, 2017, 2:32 pm

Restocking OCE EUW and NA very soon!

Meanwhile feel free to buy.

If an account is unverified, does that mean I'm allowed to change the email to my own? Just curious as I don't really know how it works.

to change the email to my own? Just curious as I don't really know how it works. Yes. It means it doesn't have a confirmed e-mail bound to it so you're able to bind yours. ?

How many champs and skins does your unverified level 30 inactive since 1 accounts have? Random? I need a few 80+ champs with tons of skins accounts. NA, OCE, EUW. Inactive since 2013 and unverified.

In that case, the only thing that's guaranteed is that the account is level 30 and has the mentioned activity.

@Shop

Added stock for OCE and NA Active and Unverified accounts.
