Thread: [\[+\$20\] ROYTOY'S UPGRADE CONTEST! \[WINNER ANNOUNCED\]](#)

Roytoy - December 30, 2013, 1:11 pm

After reviewing all the applications myself, with 2 other members who I have personally hired to help me out, I have come to the decision to upgrade the member Jerral

Since the day I joined HF, I have always felt that a significant percentage of upgraded members have been taking advantage of their upgrade. Miss-using it, and not giving the name "UB3R" the right that it deserves. Many UB3RS take advantage of their upgrade and shiny name to scam people, others use it to leech awesome free items, either from the site itself or from the normal and L33T members, without even showing appreciation in return.

Jerral's application perfectly described how I felt about the whole upgrade dilemma on HF, and I personally believe that a member who has suffered the unfairness of superiors before, will greatly add his own version of Justice to the community.

I have read great applications and have personally noticed members who definitely stand out, and you guys have not been forgotten, you will all have a place in my second contest that will most likely be next month. Thank you all for reading, and as always, have a good day.

To give back to the community of HF, and celebrating my new LoL OG summoner name shop, I have decided to create this little contest.

All members are welcome to enter, I will be upgrading 1 normal member to L33T OR 1 L33T member to UB3R.

Requirements: more than 100 posts
Positive reputation.

How to enter:

Pick your favorite summoner name and post it on my shop here, or just say what you think about the names in general.

Please fill out this application.

Code Why do you deserve this upgrade?

Link to your post on my shop thread:

And that's all! good luck everyone.

This contest will end in not more than 2 weeks.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I have been in this community for a while, I would love to be upgraded, although I do have the funds I always find myself spending them on crucial things. As this is the season of giving, all that's worthy of me to receive this is my dedication to HackForums, there is no sob story, or excuse as to why I cannot upgrade. On the other hand I would really love to win a competition for once!

Thank you kindly for hosting this, you will make somebody happy!

I think I deserve this because I try to be an HQ user, and try to help people with their Minecraft servers, and anything Minecraft related.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I have not been here very long and I know this, but at the same time, 90% of the knowledge I have gained I have attempted to give back to the community. From helping out users that I was able to, to always making sure ask the needed questions. I am not going to sit here and claim I am the best guy on the forums, but I will say, with L33t my knowledge probably doubled with what I was shown and given access to. With Ub3r and the extra access that opens to me, I feel will allow me to grow more and allow me to branch out. Knowledge is power, and power is something that must be shared.

Thanks for this great contest!

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I believe I am a good member of this community, and that I bring a lot to the table. I like to help others in any way I can, and I am active. I'm an honest, non-scamming guy. I've done good deals before, and am here to help more people be happy.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I think I might deserve this upgrade because I've always been HQ, helping the members out as much as I could. I never flame, I have 0 negative reputation, I have 0 closed, open or unsolved scam reports, no deal disputes. I am accepted for Ub3r and if needed I can attach a picture. My most active section is the Graphic Requests, where I did tens of free signatures, avatars, logos and much more for members. I held a few contests myself too. :) Thanks for reading.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I am on the HackForums on a daily basis and I would love the extra perks that i could get from a upgrade. I recently made a post on the League of legends part of the thread and It has gotten over 270 replies, which was quite fascinating lol! I never get money in terms of online wise so I can't buy things such as a upgrade for HF, This is one of rare occasions where I can potentially get something so If i win this it would be very greatly apprecated! ;)

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I love HackForums so far and I have been/am trying to help people out here. I get a lot of stick from the higher ranked members even though I haven't made any mistakes or hurt anybody in any way.

Getting this upgrade would mean a lot to me. For example, I would be more trustworthy in general and so my huge plan of a massive donation thread to get many people ranked up could work. Although a rank means nothing, the general community of HF sadly has prejudice against regulars.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I think i deserve this upgrade because i am a normal user with none of the upgraded features. I think it's better to give a person with no features some features than someone with features more features. It kind of even out's the playing field. I would also like to go and get more active in the market place and gain some more vouches. I would also like to have some sort of 'power' for say when trading someone so that way they wont think " OH its a normal user i can easily scam him", like has happened to me in the past. I also want to hold some contests for the community and i am unable to do so as a free user. If you give me this upgrade i will surely use it wisely. Thanks for this opportunity!

minimalist - January 1, 2014, 4:06 am

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I think I deserve this upgrade because I'm a mature and active poster on this forum who strives for quality, not quantity. Although I joined in August of 2013, it was not until about October when I stopped lurking and began to actually contribute to these rather interesting conversations. I found interest in the Minecraft sub forum, and started to aid others with all sorts of problems; my reputation is reflective of this.

My help is not limited to just that section, however, and you may see me posting in The Lounge, Rewards and Small Favours, and various other sections - whatever is in the "view new content", I suppose. I give away small amounts of money on top of that. Although I don't have thousands of dollars to give away, I do offer money to people in the rewards and small favours section. To this day I've given probably about $40; so why do I not just purchase the upgrade myself? It's because I feel that others are more in need of the cash than I am of L33T.

Another reason why I think I deserve L33T is because my PM space is cleared every week or so, as I'm limited to the minuscule amount of just 50 messages. My signature space can only contain text, as well, and so I can't display most things in there.

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I think I deserve this because I try my best to give back to the community as much as I get things. I just believe that I would be a great addition to this community if people would actually notice me more! Which I think being upgraded would just exactly do. If you ask anyone that actually knows me, they could tell you that I'm a great giving person. I've been thinking about upgrading for a while and I just came across this. If I got this, I would probably enjoy the site even more than I do now, and would probably be even more active than I already am!

Why do you deserve this upgrade?: I've been here quite some time. I've been here since '12 if I remember correctly. I've done sooo much stuff since then, mostly emotional help-desks (my most successful one got deleted cause someone was TRASHING it. He was trashing an EMOTIONAL help desk o.o), I've helped emotionally many more people as well to be honest. Most of them are being PM'd privately by me and are given suggestions to their problems. I always try to be HQ at all times and I always try really hard to help someone with his problems until they're solved, if he/she doesn't smile then I am not satisfied. I also believe that I would deserve this upgrade because even though that I am not L33T I've managed to get a big reputation with a very small amount of negatives, one of them even being a fake -3rep. I've also given away many LoL accounts (EUW, 30 levels and if anyone needs any just pm me.) Looking after that however.. I personally believe that rep doesn't matter but at least it's there to show that I am actually high quality, L33T or not and no matter if I get L33T or not I will still be offering emotional support & try to be as HQ as possible.

Hey there! Thank you so much for this contest!

Why do you deserve this upgrade? I have been on Hackforum for quite a while, and I've seen so much and learned so many things! But there are lots of things that I haven't found out, threads that allows upgraded members to have the best booters, hacking tools, paypal money, etc. I want to become a L33t/Ub3r member because it will mean soo much to me! The possibilities I can do and find out! The knowledge I could increase and share! HackForum was the first website that taught me how to hack and my dream is to become the best hacker there is! I can't thank you enough, but that's my reason why I should become a upgraded member.

Take care ?

Well I would love to be upgraded to L337 because I spend a lot of time on HF, and with that extra PM space I can hold more giveaways. In the past I have offered a service to draw people in paint, and I have given away quite a few 48 hour xbox live codes (some of the threads were deleted because all the codes were used). Im really active in the community and I help people whenever I can with things I have experience in. Also, regular members sometimes get taken advantage of (I have been scammed twice) and I dont want that to happen to anyone, let alone me. To conclude, thank you so much for this giveaway it will make someones day, good luck to everyone, if I win, it would make my day, my month, my year!

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

I try to be as HQ as I am able to be.

As I might not be the biggest contributor on HF,

I still try to contribute to HF in other forms than writting massive threads. Of course if I ever stumble upon a subject of some kind inside science, I'd gladly write a report and share it here on HF, such just haven't ocured to me at this point.

I am pretty sure there is someone else than me who deserves and upgrade, however I'd very much like this myself, after all I'm also human :b

Why do you deserve this upgrade?

Let me start of by telling you a bit about myself.

I'm Mika I'm 14 years old and I live in the Netherlands.

I'm on here almost every single day (lol that sounds so addicted).

Sometimes only a couple minutes just to check if I have any pm's and to reply to a couple threads.

And sometimes almost the whole day.

I have been a member for a while now and have learned a lot.

The forum has also greatly improved my grammar I know watch punctuation and also watch my spelling a lot more then I used to.

The computer sections are where I can be found most of the time.

This has been my place to give advice and if i need it to ask for advice as well.
I've been trying to help the community out where ever I can.
Whether that is answering questions on threads or over pm.
Making people pc builds or just giving out general advice in all kinds of sections mostly the computer sections and sometimes the lounge and innuendo.

I really want to be an HF L33T because that would make people not look over my advice so quickly.
Of course I do not expect to be more respected, respected is earned not bought.
Also I would love to have access to the extra features such as a bigger pm inbox being able to edit my post's after a day has passed.
Also I would love to be able to have an picture as signature and be able to rep the people who deserve it.

Thank you so much for giving us the opportunity to win HF L33T.
And best of luck to everyone who enters.

Jerral - January 6, 2014, 10:01 am

why do you deserve this upgrade?

I have been on hf for let see over six months... my first experience was a harsh one...i joined hf in search of exchanging my paysafe card to paypal...

so i wrote a thread on the exchanging section waiting to do a trade...

I got a pm..it was from an uber..a "trusted member" you would say with lots of rep...i trusted him and since i was a new normal member i went first...

i ended up scammed by him for 21 euros...

you would say how this is relevant to why i deserve being an uber...

the truth is that there are lots of ubers and leets in this forum that scam people in cold blood with no hesitation at all..

In my opinion an uber is a mature member who has accumulated knowledge through time and helps new members punishes people in his way who do bad and immoral things such as scamming...Daily i see people using their rep to abuse others for no justified reason and i believe is unfair and immoral to attack the weak...

For this reason because i was mistreated by an uber i want to be an uber so that i can help others in need and contribute to the community since i owe to much to hf...still i believe there are good ubers who keep the balance and i am glad for it...

I am jerral and this is my story

Since the day I joined HF, I have always felt that a significant percentage of upgraded members have been taking advantage of their upgrade. Miss-using it, and not giving the name "UB3R" the right that it deserves. Many UB3RS take advantage of their upgrade and shiny name to scam people, others use it to leech awesome free items, either from the site itself or from the normal and L33T members, without even showing appreciation in return.

Jerral's application perfectly described how I felt about the whole upgrade dilemma on HF, and I personally believe that a member who has suffered the unfairness of superiors before, will greatly add his own version of Justice to the community.

I have read great applications and have personally noticed members who definitely stand out, and you guys have not been forgotten, you will all have a place in my second contest that will most likely be next month. Thank you all for reading, and as always, have a good day.

To give back to the community of HF, and celebrating my new LoL OG summoner name shop, I have decided to create this little contest.

All members are welcome to enter, I will be upgrading 1 normal member to L33T OR 1 L33T member to UB3R.

Requirements:more than 100 posts
Positive reputation.

How to enter:

Pick your favorite summoner name and post it on my shop here, or just say what you think about the names in general.

Please fill out this application.

And that's all! good luck everyone.

This contest will end in not more than 2 weeks.

I would like to thank very much the host Roytoy for the honor he is doing to me by selecting me as the winner of this contest.

I am glad that my story and voice regarding the unfairness of the strong who abuse the weak for their own personal gain was finally heard and recognized by someone.I realize that i am not the only victim and that everyday the deal dispute section of this forum is full of threads...in fact i believe it is one of the most active sections in this forum..and i feel sad for it.I do not say that i am a mighty hero that will wipe all those who do harm but as long as i have the privilege to be an uber i will try my best to help whoever is in need and is abused by those who are dishonest...

I believe as we in real life must be honest polite and just with those who deserve it the same we must do in this forum as well...because it might be a cyberspace but it is a gathering space of free people who must respect each other mutually.

Thank you very much again
