Thread: Motivation to Make Money

Zerofix - January 4, 2014, 6:08 pm

So i see a lot of people giving up after buying ebooks, or just giving up because they didnt succeed in something.

So here is some motivation for you guys, I made it going autopilot, and i can increase this earning and i will (in 20 days). It took me half a year sitting here on HF learning a stuff and trying them out. Alot of them just failed, but i didnt gave up on money making.

[img]http://s21.postimg.org/or73il9zb/money.png[/img] << Switched over to new PPI network.

PPI is beast!!!

Hey mate,

Do you have skype?

Can you tell me more about this, because i'm in the same boat you were.

I've looked into alot of PPD, etc but still - Wouldn't have a clue where to start.

Thankyou for taking the time to read my response mate.

Hope you will consider showing me your ways. =)

Have a Great Day.

you can use PPI network provided in my signature, and it took me to set up around 3H.

So this is your website and you get a percentage out of it on top of your mark for others to install a product from your ref? ?

Is it possible to make a website like this, and for every sign-up you get a commission on top of the commission for downloads that other people make? would be a great way to make money! it might be a little hard at the start but if your in control and done right maybe thats a good secure way.
