Also, would you buy the theme? (When it's finished of course)

Should i continue working on this Flat concept,
Or should i start a new one with shades and depth, Totally different style,
What you guys think?

Merko - January 5, 2014, 7:51 am

I love the control box buttons.. Keep up the good work. I'll defiantly buy it! ?

shebang - January 5, 2014, 7:52 am

To be honest, it's a little blocky for my tastes, but I can definitely see why some people would like it.

Cairns - January 5, 2014, 7:56 am

I like it, it looks great. Best of luck with your project buddy

Sc?rf?c3_ - January 5, 2014, 8:00 am

One of the most best looking metro style theme, and highly customizable....always loved it..a version two is well worthed in my opinion, buy it? why not... if the result will improve "hugely" the free one, maybe yes...but put in count to get less popularity.

Same! I am pumped to see what the ComboBox will look like :3

Nebula - January 5, 2014, 8:55 am

It looks awesome man! I can't wait to see the finished product! Flat UI is easily my favorite theme.

Aristocles - January 5, 2014, 9:28 am

Wait, what did you do except adding a new Progress Bar, and a circled version of the Maximise / minimise button ?

I can remake the Revamped version only with the "normal" version ^^"

Only3 - January 5, 2014, 9:44 am dont think some1 will buy it with the metro look and lots of free themes out try new look

AeroCryX - January 5, 2014, 9:45 am

Nice work ! Could you add the light version of the FlatUI theme please ? thanks !

Toblerone - January 5, 2014, 10:50 am

Love this kind of style but I don't many people would pay for something in this section.

Nextrum - January 5, 2014, 10:53 am

I like the progressbar that's really tasty! However, I'm not a lover of the controlbox colours, I like the concept just not the colours. However, keep up the good work :)

Dunno if you ever tried this theme, but all controls are full of properties and you can change any colors....and same controls have more than one style...dont really take care about colors is up to you. ;)

Yeah I was just on about the default. All my themes and such are customisable and such. :)

Evident - January 5, 2014, 11:14 am

I like how the progress bar looks!

I loved the original theme so I cant wait for this to be released.

Moon Rock - January 5, 2014, 11:32 am

Sorry man, it's good but I wouldn't buy a theme. But it's probably because I don't do nothing with selling my programs.

Kaleb - January 5, 2014, 11:33 am

why are you still wasting time with visual basics my nigga

Netw?rk - January 5, 2014, 11:42 am

I would for sure, I love themes like that one.

You really should continue and of course, always improving pal!

?XilluX - January 5, 2014, 11:44 am

I would not buy it since you have released the first Version. But if you are going to fully restyle it, I would buy it. Also please make it more compatible with Events. For example the KeyDown Event did not work on the FlatTextbox.

EKNOZ - January 5, 2014, 11:58 am

Looks really nice bro, keep up the good work!

GammaRay - January 5, 2014, 4:17 pm

Holy Moly this is beautiful! You are doing an outstanding job with this theme. For sale purposes I recommend including a toolstrip as modern themes are best used for software that requires toolstrips for example a text editor.

SkyRider2 - January 6, 2014, 12:08 am looks sleek, nice job man continue!~

[KE]Helios - January 6, 2014, 1:15 am

Extremely nice work dude!

I'm sure it will be as awesome as you first FlatUI-Theme!

But unfortunately I have to tell you I won't buy it... Your theme will be extremely nice but there are also many free Themes out there that are nearly on the same level... :)

lakiluki - January 6, 2014, 3:34 am

The best VB.NET theme I've ever seen. I'm currently using this theme on my new project and would love to see v2.

Keep up the good work, mate!

fillobotto - January 6, 2014, 9:12 am

It looks pretty nice, but honestly it's not so difficult to make one, so I wouldn't buy it. This is just my two cents...

th3s3cr3t0n3 - January 6, 2014, 12:39 pm

I do like this theme, I commented saying so in your original thread. I think now you're adding a more unique take to it by giving it Mac-like control buttons. I'd like to see what your further progress is.

TonyTonyChopper - January 6, 2014, 12:44 pm

I loved the first theme, this one is looking amazing as well, and yeah I would buy it if it isn't too expensive.

SkyRider2 - January 7, 2014, 1:57 am

Nice update to the theme, can't wait to see more!

iSynthesis - January 7, 2014, 1:39 pm

Thanks for the kind words,

Thread updates guys, tell me what you think.

[KE]Helios - January 7, 2014, 2:16 pm

As already many times said...

Your work is fking awesome I will surely use your theme and credit you

Keep up your good work!

Perhaps I will donate some money if the theme is going to be free and nice as always! :)

Tidas - January 7, 2014, 4:54 pm

This is extremely easy to create. Don't sell this, lol.

Lanku - January 7, 2014, 5:02 pm

Wow looks great, loved the original as well, probably wouldn't pay for it though.

Tidas - January 7, 2014, 5:20 pm

Adding onto my previous comment, this is how easy it is.

Your button is 2 lines of code. I'm not trying to be an ass, but this took me literally a minute to create, and I could create all of the controls in a day. It looks good, but the design doesn't actually belong to you, and filling a rectangle/circle isn't difficult at all, which is why you shouldn't contemplate trying to profit off of it.

NETExplorer - January 7, 2014, 5:34 pm

Please, add some gradients or some kind of style to it. To me, it's far too bland

Answer to your question: Yes, please make a new one with gradients and other shit like that ?

iSynthesis - January 8, 2014, 12:30 am

First of all i never said the concept belongs to me, The flat UI design is around for the past couple of years (i believe Zune Player was the first one) And now pretty much every big company uses it (Microsoft, Apple, Google, And more..)

And i'm not using other people's work to code themes (Not using Aeon's Theme Base)

I can add tons of styles and gradients and what not, But someone smarter then me once said, Simple is beautiful.

Thanks.

Cairns - January 8, 2014, 3:07 am

I really like it so far. Great job and you should continue you it and try your luck

SubGenius - January 8, 2014, 3:41 am

I always loved your first theme, FlatUI

Although I can't say the same for version 2, in my opinion making another flat theme is boring.

If you want to continue with Flat themes, you should update the first version, making another theme with the same concept is not ok...

So I would totaly support making another theme style, shades and depths are cool. ?

Magician - January 9, 2014, 8:21 am

This is better you should continue this work.

Joey97MQ - January 9, 2014, 9:51 am

Nice, i hope there comes more and more components

DeanReynolds - January 9, 2014, 1:40 pm

Looks great, just not my style. But I can see others' using it in good reason.

?nder - January 9, 2014, 6:37 pm

I've used your older style a couple times and in all honesty if all of the kinks were worked out and had more components as well as color schemes I would actually buy it.

I really like the Style and personally would be willing to pay for a high-quality product.

L33TZ - January 10, 2014, 5:41 am

I really like it, very nice made :)

Jollibee - January 10, 2014, 7:09 pm

You Should Continue to this FLAT Ui. because this is the new generation.

spAb0k - January 11, 2014, 1:33 am very very nice work mate continue what you are doing :)

zyvox - January 11, 2014, 5:01 am

Looks great, however I do not like the progressbar. The bar itself is nice, but the red background looks kind of weird imo.

Cape - January 11, 2014, 11:21 pm

Look like another good theme. keep up the good work!

lakiluki - January 14, 2014, 7:59 am

This would be great, but firstly, could you fix the controls event bugs/not working at all?

Also, regarding your question, continue with this one.

temosis - March 25, 2014, 9:22 pm

Your work is a top notch! Don't go sideways bcax some ppl are flaming you.

imaking - March 26, 2014, 8:03 am

No I guess if you will sell it because we can easily remake it using your old version.

?XilluX - March 26, 2014, 11:35 am

Yes, definitively work on this ! It is the most advanced theme I see in public.

Gundam X - March 26, 2014, 9:04 pm

This looks great keep developing it!!!

nuk - March 27, 2014, 9:48 am

Not a fan at all of metro-based themes but I can appreciate the great job you do on these :) Keep up the good work!

Vexane - March 27, 2014, 1:23 pm

I think you should keep going! It's looking great so far!
Will this be just for Visual Basic or will it be for C# as well?

??????? - March 27, 2014, 3:27 pm

I personally wouldn't use it, however all themes serve a purpose and some program will be made where it would probably look good on.

ahmed1996 - May 17, 2014, 9:23 am

how to download it i can't find any links to download joneh heil - August 8, 2014, 2:22 pm

Yes I would buy this theme. Looks perfect for a modern time vpn. I would price it at $5 - $10
