Yo man, can I grab a vouch copy?
I'll leave a review when I receive.

'Ben - January 15, 2014, 3:29 pm

Hey mate, ill take a vouch copy if it's still going?

Arbs - January 15, 2014, 3:32 pm

I received my vouch copy from Templar. Method is unseen to me, and seems like quite a good source of income. It's simply and concise, with easy to follow instructions. I believe if one was to follow the methods listed in the ebook they would make a nice automated income. From what I read, there are few to no grammar mistakes throughout the ebook.

b?sed - January 15, 2014, 3:34 pm

Sent vouch copies to all the users above.
No more vouch copies available.

'Ben - January 15, 2014, 3:39 pm

Had a quick read over the guide. Seen the idea round before but never the less it works providing you follow the instructions eBook is well written, set out nicely and very easy to follow. You will need a small amount of money to get the ball rolling but you will make a lot more back
Overall i think this eBook is worth the money, has the potential to make you a LOT more

Thanks OP & Good luck

Sorry :LTo be fair though you have a warning level of 10% and only have 7rep which is less rep than he has and just cause he hasn't bought L33T doesn't mean anything it's a badge doesn't change you in any other way.

I'm looking for reviewers who's reputation could bring more sales.

It's sad though that you saw it as an insult though, somewhat ignorant in my opinion.

I don't see how it's ignorant i just remember the days when I wasn't l33t and no one would give me a vouch copy. My point was just because he's not l33t doesn't mean he cannot vouch.

For vouch copies, I was looking for people who either had a high amount of rep, were ub3r(because you have to get approved for that) or were l33t and have an at least 30+ rep.

He had 11 rep.

He had 11 rep.

So why didn't you state that instead of just picking out all of his faults ?

1. He had a warning level.

2. Lower rep than wanted.

3. Not upgraded(ub3r)

I didn't want it to be a 5 post ordeal because of him asking why he did not get a vouch copy.

Anyways I'm done with this, this'll be my last reply. If you'd like to argue more, feel free to PM me.

I'm done too any way op GLWS. And yes your reason for not giving him a vouch is a valid one I just think people tend to overlook the average user just my opinion. I have no quarrel here.
