Thread: AWM VS Max Bounty?

So I want some input on AdWorkMedia VS Max Bounty. I currently make about 100-250/week on Max Bounty using Offers that pay 1-4$

I was looking on AWM and they don't seem to have such high paying offers. normally $0.90 Which is still decent but not as much.

My main targets are Leads, email submits, and one page submits.

Currently these are the only CPA networks I know that are good/decent, Can I get any other recommendations?

Maxbounty is a good network but the main question would be are you more concerned with incentive or non incentive offers? While maxbounty is good for both adwork seems to have a wider selection for incent offers.

Incentive would be better but dose not paid nearly as much.

You're looking for incentive, go with AWM. MaxBounty is more non-incent.

I'm promoney, MaxBounty seems like they always pay more. Even the non-incentive ones on AWM don't pay as much as MB

AdWorkMedia has more incent offers than MaxBounty, but the few incents offers at MaxBounty are at good rates and quality. I'd say it depends on your niche. Maxbounty is strict with incent especially. Evaluate both and determine for yourself.

Adwork Media If you have not experience with non-incet offers.

Well, I have experience, AWM just doesn't pay much. At most sign ups are at about $1.3 at max bounty I get $2.5-4/sign up.
