Ultimate User & Password List

I have compiled a large list of usernames and passwords to be used for bruteforcing. Multiple text files were merged together and then compressed into a RAR. Make sure you have enough memory allocated to process!

2.8GB > 841MB

If you need some help using this .txt, post back here and I'll write up a quick tutorial for you using Hydra. Specify if you want it through Windows or Linux command line.

File is too large to upload to any online virus scanner that I know. So feel free to scan it on your computer.

IF YOU DON'T TRUST IT, THEN DON'T DOWNLOAD IT

You can use this for the username and password. Yeah, it'll take forever to find combinations, but if you have a spare computer to run this on constantly, the amount of username/password combinations will be insane!

I'm not responsible for anything you do with this file. It should be used to test the strength of your own usernames and passwords of your own website. Authentication Hacking Attacks are a huge vulnerability in many forums without captchas or attempt limits! Keep yourself protected.
