Thread: Giving away an Infinite Crisis beta invite.

Chocola - January 22, 2014, 2:30 pm

Infinite Crisis is a game based on comic book Heroes and Villains (Joker, Batman, Superman, Poison Ivy, Harley Quinn, etc) and is based around a MOBA environment (Multiplayer Online Battle Arena) but it's unusual from the normal style MOBAs, where there's 3 lanes and a jungle, in Infinite Crisis there are no sight wards/vision wards, there is only 2 lanes and a huge jungle in the middle of the map. It's quite interesting and I'd recommend you check it out.

In order to enter this contest you must do the above:

1. Post here, your post number will depend on whether or not you win.
2. That's it, just post!

There are NA and EU servers ONLY, so I wouldn't recommend entering if you're in South America or Australia, but there's no restrictions for doing so.

EDIT: Contest closes tomorrow 1/23/14 at 11:59PM

Are people actually interested in this game? I have around 20 codes probably that I don't use.
