Thread: [\[Scammed\]Scammed by zJWv out of 0.05 Bitcoin](#)

If I ever receive the doge I will edit this thread, however I do not want anyone to get scammed if he really is a scammer so I am posting this now before its too late.

I was asking for 100 thousand Dogecoins in exchange for 0.05 bitcoin here.

This user had a positive reputation and is part of the group l33t so I assumed he was a legit guy. He had no older scam reports and was generally nice at the beginning of our trade.

We had agreed to make the trade over a day ago at this point and probably longer when we you are currently reading this.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

I sent him the BTC (Notice that the Bitcoin address is the same one he sent me)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

He said this morning he was in bed when the bitcoin was sent and would send me the doge soon, but that was almost 12 hours ago

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

And I have not received the Doge yet. I included the time in the bottom right hand corner of when I screen capped my doge wallet. I still have not recieved the doge.

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

He has since blocked me from PM'ing him

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

User left rep on my profile ADMITTING he scammed me.

If everyone would be so kind as to leave a neutral or negative rep on his profile to warn others with a link to this thread that would be awesome.

Odds are I could have been smarter about this situation but he seemed like a legit user so I trusted him

You're not allowed to leave neutral or negs with the link of the scam report. Only the person who made the scam report can do that. Sorry you got scammed man that sucks.

If I have been scammed how can I report it or even start a new thread when I have such low reputation. I made a purchase but I only received a key generator. Sent the generation key as directed but still nothing else. and im not getting any responses to my emails anymore. Its only been one day but im a noob and starting to get pissed False alarm, I seemed to have jumped the gun as it was my first online purchase via HF. Awesome now.
