Why I deserve the Gift Award:

I think I deserve the Gift award because I contribute a lot to the Hackforums community. I have made giveaways and contests from Steam games to PayPal cash.

Here's a list of my contributions. I also have a few Steam Game contests I have not put on there yet.

A$AP R?o??cky - January 24, 2014, 7:33 pm

I'd like the Ub3r Upgrade.

Reason: I can't buy the Ub3r upgrade like i wanted this month since I've had to invest my money in other things. I feel that i deserve Ub3r and I've helped contribute a lot to the forum. Plus i'm nice to everyone and i use the forum in a good way.

Nice giveaway!

zayveN - January 24, 2014, 7:41 pm

I believe I deserve the gift award because recently I have been giving a ton to the HackForums community and I am currently holding a $100 PayPal contest. I do not believe in spending money on myself unless it is for survival only, so I will not pay for anything for myself. I will still continue to do giveaways and such so I feel as if it will help motivate me to continue giving away, even though I am already giving so much. I'd also simply enjoy having an award upon my profile, would be something very interesting which I have never experienced before.

Gambino - January 24, 2014, 7:52 pm

13abyknight's Entry for the L33T upgrade contest

I have been a member of HF from the past 6 months and I have enjoyed browsing and posting on HF as much as anyone would have. I have contributed back to the community by helping out newer members who have needed help on things which they do not have experience in (like C#, Crypters, RATs etc). HQ members of HF have also helped me when I've needed any. Becoming L33T would give me more of inbox space (which I am in need of right now), the facility to host contest (which I plan of) and I would seem more HQ which I truly am. Finally, I love this community because it is just awesome!

Thanks for the opportunity Infamous group.

Nitz0007 - January 24, 2014, 11:28 pm

I'd love to have that L33t upgrade!!

I came across HF when I was browsing something.....

I'm really glad to see that I joined this site,I was attracted to see the 'hacking part' of the HackForums!

I learned a lot from here and there's lots and lots of info for me to capture here ?

This is the first site I visit when I open up my browser! ?

I have never made any single $ from the internet,therefore I took HF as my mentor!

I'm sure that I will succeed with this mission..... ?

I dont have the money to upgrade,If I find a way of even earning a single $/day with the help of HF ,I'll be very happy! ?

I'm sure that I can contribute to this forum in the near future!!

& thank you OP for holding a Great event like this!! ?
btw Goodluck to all the participants!

~Nitz0007

I am entering for the Ub3r upgrade. I am entering in for this because, I am a broke ass bitch and can't afford it myself, and I am going to correct you, you used the wrong "through" in OP. But why I really want it, is to help with my sales on my Ghosts Service. More people will purchase from ub3rs from what I have seen so far.

Thanks for the giveaway mate and good luck to everyone who enters.

Daily on this forum, I strive to do my best to be a HQ forum member and do great things here, along with in my real life. I feel like providing me with the Gift Award would help me venture back into this forum in my former glory of a HQ Member, and to re-integrate into the HF Community.

Thank you for reading my application. Your consideration in me as the recipient is greatly appreciated.

Proof you are accepted for UB3R:

Why do you deserve to win:

One of the reasons i deserve to win this is because i am part of the community for a pretty long time. I really love the community, It all started the day i googled: "How To Hack".

I am happy to be part of the community because the most people out here are very friendly. I think i deserve this because i think i am a HQ member. (Hard to say about yourself)

In the future i wanna start a producing e-book. I am part of the BH-EDM, I really like it out there. I am producing house for like 2 years now and i wanna improve my producing skills in the next period.

My real name is ramon btw and i am 15 years old, i am from holland. I've learned much out here on hackforums, like how to use a RAT, What is bitcoin etc. But the main rule i learned on hackforums is, be nice to someone and he will be nice back to you. This rule is also for everything in real-life. If you do something for the community the community does something back to you. That's what i really like about HF. I think i also deserve this because i did some giveaways, made some tools and did a RAT service. I've helped people set-up their RAT and get a first slave. I also had a DDOS-service, but closed this because of too much requests.

Thanks for hosting the contest and good luck to everyone who will enter this.

Gift Award

I feel i deserve it because i help around as much as possible in the community and i try my best to be HQ.

HIGH PAID FELLA - January 25, 2014, 8:23 am

Why do you deserve to win: First of all, I want to thank you for doing this giveaway and giving my a chance to upgrade (to l33t). I want to say that I deserve it because I'm a HQ member, I help a lot of people with feedback (more on GFX), ideas and much more. I help people a lot with my free GFX-service I started because I want to help the people out that don't want to pay. It's too for myself I do it to become each time better and better. And I did too a free hosting for ONLY the HF community because you needed to PM for an account (you can't make one by yourself). I would like l33t because of all his features and if I would get it it would for me a reason to become even more active than ever (already active) I need the PM space, always needed to delete my inbox.

I think I deserve it because i've done many giveaways and sales. And think that I'm HQ. I can help alot of people out when they're in trouble with ewhoring aswell.

Dropbox - January 25, 2014, 8:31 am

I would love the gift award...

the reason why i think i deserve this award is because i have always looked up to your group ever since joining hack forums, i would love to win this award because i can always look up and remember that you guys have gifted me this award, also this would be my second award well first if you forget about the ub3r award, i would love to join your group but sadly i do not meet the requirements, i love what your group is doing it is very helpful to the hackforums community for example this giveaway, your giving something back to the people of hackforums... so thank you very much and to everyone else good luck

Tricklet - January 25, 2014, 8:37 am

I realize the requirements are for 'Two-Hundred' plus posts, but I feel that I can exceed the boundaries and show you I am more capable and more 'High Quality' than most new members.

What I want: L33T upgrade.

Why do you want it?: I feel that I could earn this position on the forums. Not only do I post high-quality threads, and all (or most) of my posts are very well written and I try (Choose) not to be low-quality, for my purpose and the purpose of others.

I make sure others are in a good standing, if they need something than I will always be there too help, whether it big or small. I will try my best to do what it takes to make the other(s) and or a person happy.

I offer a few services, and I feel that with to-days society it could help people in need and that have questions that can't be asked in real life, due to financial problems, or alone bodies. I also offer free 'E-Whore' advice, I exceed well beyond minimal requirements when in this category. And have an extensive knowledge in social engineering, which I also give free advice for. I help out with relationship problems. I help with family issues, computer issues. I even make free graphics for people even though I am a proper noob!

But also, another thing to add is, I did only register in November, yes I wasn't active, but my past 75+ posts have been from me recently. I am now active and on the forums 3+ hours a day depending on my work schedule and personal life issues.

No Private message ever goes unannounced, I always get to them. No matter how big or small or how long it might take me to process. It will get a reply and will get the help the person(s) looking for.

I also feel that since I am up there with reputation, seeing as it is a requirement, maybe it can help me surpass the post requirement.

what you want : 1x GIFT AWARD

why you deserve it : Because That would be a lovely start to my new year as I got no gifts since then. :(

SOAP - January 27, 2014, 3:42 am

I wouldn't say I "deserve" the gift award more along the lines of I want it.

Vanadiumz - January 27, 2014, 4:36 am

Prize:

1x Gift Award

Why?:

I feel that to this date on HF I am missing one thing, a gift from someone.. I've always given ever since my first day on HF honestly.. I've never gotten anything in return (gift/freebie-wise).

Anyway, Sorry for the lame application but I believe it's worth the shot and my reasoning was legitimate.

Shanks - January 27, 2014, 7:18 am

I want the Gift award, why.. because I damn want it :(Do I deserve it?: Your call.

I would like to apply for the Ub3r Upgrade.

I have held many giveaway's that involve Money and Netflix accounts.

I've also been a L33t member for almost a year and I would like to become an Ub3r so I can better help out the community.

I've also been accepted for Ub3r

SkyGuy - February 8, 2014, 10:01 am

I'd love the gift award because I'm not afraid to express my opinion. <3

Trust - February 8, 2014, 10:03 am

I'd like the "1x Gift Award"

I want this because I don't have any awards and I don't see myself getting any besides maybe, "Gift" and "Sushi Lover" in the near future.

Insanity? - February 8, 2014, 10:03 am

I'd like the 'Gift Award'.

I believe I deserve this award, because I am yet to obtain the award, and as I currently don't have any, it will be my first.

I've provided help to the community, and have given to back to HF itself.

Sparkyau - February 8, 2014, 5:40 pm

Not entering, but Nice Giveaway OP, hopefully one day i could be a winner of one :)

Timeline - February 8, 2014, 6:58 pm

Ill opt for the l33t upgrade.

I have been a member on several forums, but HF is the only forum which I actively use, rest all are like 'I open them when I need them'. I love this community, many members here have helped me on various issues and many here are now my good friends.

I'm always ready to help out people. I'm good at c++ coding, a bit of marketing, PPD and with common PC problems.

This l33t upgrade here on my favourite forum will mean worlds to me. I'll be able to explore more of HF and reach out to more people xD.

Thanks for your time in going through my application. My regards.

Yakless - February 8, 2014, 8:41 pm

I want a gift award and I deserve it because I'm a fucking beast. Any more questions?

DeMon Designs - February 8, 2014, 10:45 pm

Real Muthaphukkin G - February 9, 2014, 1:59 am

I don't qualify,

so just want to say good luck to other members and thanks OP for this contest

Shanks - February 9, 2014, 2:02 am

I want to the Gift award, Why do I deserve it?.. Because I LOVE Hackforums.

Slimy - February 9, 2014, 2:42 am

I would like the Gift Award. I feel I have contributed and helped around the forum and are continuing to do so. Having this award would be something in return for everything I do for free.

Gangster Disciple - February 9, 2014, 4:56 am

The Gift Award would be really cool, but I am entering for the Ub3r upgrade!

I believe that I should be upgraded to Ub3r not because I deserve it as such, but because I could possibly offer something different to most other people that want it and also, I have been here a long time. I wasn't active much before I left for a while, but when I came back my activity has shot up a huge bunch. I am mostly in the "Innuendo" forum helping out other people with their problems, offering advice or just contributing as a whole. I have received positive feedback and appreciation for helping people out with sensitive topics such as these, but that's not why I do it. I do it to show that there are still some kind-hearted people out there that genuinely want to help others. I take pride in creating high quality posts and always make sure that my grammar, spelling and punctuation are equated to those posts. I feel that a lot of people misuse the name of Ub3r to get advantages over other normal members and think that they have a sense of "power", but this isn't the case with me. I'd see myself as the type of person to not use Ub3r to scam other members and show appreciation by continuing to keep high quality, while also helping out other members, whether new or old.

Antinormality - February 9, 2014, 7:26 am

I'd like to apply for the L33T upgrade because,

The ability to edit threads allowing me to write better guides and update them during a longer period.

I believe I deserve it because I'm a member of HF for quite awhile and have been contributing quite alot.

I am trying to help where I can, mainly in the music section and with computer related issues.

Bet - February 12, 2014, 4:39 am

Dood - February 14, 2014, 8:33 pm

Not exactly sure how one can "deserve" an upgrade or an award...but here goes. (This is for the Gift award)

When I first started on HF, I'll admit it; I was kind of a leech. I learned a lot of things, and rarely gave back. (I've started to help people on here a lot more recently, with contests and such.)

But overall, however, I've been using HF as a marketplace. Having this award would bolster my reputation as a dealer, and provide a better atmosphere for my deals.

phybe? Jr. - February 14, 2014, 8:37 pm

Wanted: Gift award

Why: I have contributed a good amount of stuff to the HF community.
