Thread: [\[Community Alert\] Dark UID=2025980](#)

D?certo - January 26, 2014, 8:32 am

Username: Dark

Profile Link: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=2025980>

I am making this thread as a user who recently joined the site does not feel that anyone would believe his Scam report.

I felt the need to make members aware that Dark appears to have scammed a regular member out of around 100 Euros (Asking price) and I cannot just sit here and let him get away with it..

Sales thread in question.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4020318>

The user was selling an item for the steam game counter strike.

Item: M9 Bayonet | Night (Field Tested)

As you can see in the thread, Dark completely denies any deal being done, and that the seller refused to go first.

Here are some screens the seller posted of their coversation off site.

Now, to the evidence that shows Dark did receive the knife, despite, in his words, no deal being done.

Dark Steam UUsername: <http://steamcommunity.com/id/Our/>

Proof that this is his Steam (Large Image): Spoiler \(Click to View\)

He has now edited the above thread to remove the evidence.

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3854180>

Proof he has the Item in question: <http://steamcommunity.com/id/Our/inventory/>

As you can see his most recent item is an M9 Bayonet | Night (Field Tested)

If I should not have made this thread, here or at all, let me know and I will delete it.
As I said though, I cannot just sit here and watch this happen.

I am still encouraging the seller to create a scam report also.

EDIT: I did forget to mention, Dark also has prior scam reports, even relating to credit card fraud.

EDIT 2: He has now traded the item for another knife. Proof of him having the above item can be found below.

shebang - January 26, 2014, 9:03 am

Well, there is a lot of overwhelming evidence against Dark. Hopefully he changes his mind.

Marlborosmoker - January 26, 2014, 9:41 am

Thanks for the warning my friend... Seems sketchy.

D?certo - January 26, 2014, 10:45 am

Hopefully he will explain himself in relation to this.

Brak - January 26, 2014, 12:35 pm

He has other reports still opened and he's still in his group...smh

Geekie benji - January 26, 2014, 2:37 pm

Hi, im the seller... I just wanted to let you know that he have now traded the knife into another one but here is a printscreen of him using the knife:

It's nice to know they took the time to review this.

There is nothing I hate more than users who abuse their reputation, and use it to take advantage of others.

Xefier - January 27, 2014, 2:05 am

Shit got real, I hope it get resolved as fast as possible.

Colorado - January 27, 2014, 2:21 am

This is 100% accurate, I followed the thread when the deal went down.

I am certain Dark has scammed Geekie benji.

JEYRAZZ - January 27, 2014, 2:26 am

First of all, he's been active on forum for the past few days, and he's been ignoring the people that have purchased his 'steam gifts' for -50% off, which most of them got revoked, a large portion of his customers have been messaging and posting on his sale's thread as the games were revoked by steam due relating to credit card fraud by Dark. He just kept ignoring them while he was still browsing the forum and trying to purchase CS:GO items from other HF members. I believe that's something you should note.

I received the following message from him a few days ago, regarding the CS:GO Knives that I had put up for sale:

Spoiler (Click to View)

and I responded him with the two following messages:

Spoiler (Click to View)

[img]http://img690.imageshack.us/img690/6712/nn3p.png[/img]

First of all, he offered me a generous amount of money, more than I was actually asking on my thread. He also started his message with "I am a very very trusted steam seller on HF." which is a sign of the fact that he's actually attempting to scam. He also noted that he wouldn't mind using a middleman, but he thought I was dumb enough to actually believe him that the fees would be $40.00 USD, like come the fuck one, we are not dealing with thousands of dollars, the fees wouldn't be even near to $40, one of the most trusted middleman (reaper) I believe, or something along those lines, let alone is asking for just $2 for his service, so the fact that he said it would be $40 is ridiculous. Obviously, he said the fee would be $40 only because he wanted to persuade me not to use one to save some money and go first because he is such "trusted member". After sending the two messages above, I didn't receive absolutely no more messages from him, at that point, it was clear that he's attempting to scam me as he knew I wouldn't do it without a middleman.

I did see the original knife thread, and even without the proof of the fact that it is his steam account (which is now confirmed), it was quiet obvious that Dark actually scammed the guy, just because of his background and how childish and immature he was replying to the thread. I'm sorry Dark, but you're terrible at scamming if you were actually trying to hide it, that wasn't original at all, you're pathetic..

Valid scam report.

This makes it even more obvious that he sets out to lure members into a false sense of security. He must have no morals to abuse people's trust, well, let's hope karma is a bitch for him.

shebang - January 29, 2014, 9:24 am

Sending this up so anyone thinking of dealing with him changes their mind.

polycs - January 29, 2014, 1:27 pm

I hate people like Dark.

Thanks for reporting this guy.

rxki - January 29, 2014, 2:01 pm

I've had a bad experience with this individual as well;

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3972535>

Just don't deal with him in general.

IPearcy - January 30, 2014, 4:09 am

This kind of stuff keeps me really edgy from buying on here :(as said previously hopefully karma rapes him hard

Purewinter™ - February 1, 2014, 6:01 am

Also was scammed by dark, do not deal.

Everywhere - April 16, 2014, 10:08 am

I knew it, That Kid gave me -3 for no reason as well, because we had no deal...

420 Blaze It - April 17, 2014, 12:22 am

OP is legit, but this is not where you should post it. POST it in Marketplace discussions.

#Reliant - April 17, 2014, 5:05 am

I'm not trying to start anything, but as of right now, Dark and I have dealt twice in the past legitimately with no problems, we even agreed on using a middleman.

He has made an admission of guilt via PM to me and does regret his past actions. He is trying to right his past wrong doings, so may be a more trustworthy user now, but this still happened and it is clearly proven.

Just reading this and he offers you a middleman, he did the same thing with me when I was scammed by this little "fucker"... Scammers can build up reputation and then just go for it, scam on a big deal. Go "away" for some months/weeks, then when everyone have forgot about it he can just come back and build up new reputation. then it is again possible to get scammed because you think a guy with high rep are worth trusting. I have pmed him a few weeks back and he still refuse that he didnt scam me. This guy is a dick just sad that he got a explanation for everything... Just brining this up because I can see that his steam sales are still having problems and he are still finding some kind of excuse to get away with it.

This DARK is a dick and he are always gonne be one as long that I see his uid or name at hackforums.

Last of all I got banned from the forums because I "harassed" him by posting on his threads, so tell us a bit about what the mods around here really care about.

Neal Caffrey - May 24, 2015, 5:37 pm

Hey Dark, this seems to be a pretty big deal, would appreciate if you replied to it.
