Why do you want this money?

I just spent my whole PayPal balance on my brother's 18th birthday present and I literally have $0.01 left. I started browsing HF's Marketplace soon after and realized I had some things I could sell in it, but can't because I'm not an upgraded member. I know this is cliché, but after I kept browsing posts and watching the community, I realized the community seemed cool as fuck, and the money via marketplace was not as important to me anymore. I became active, started posting, and now I want to actually meet some other users. Unfortunately, it is hard to do that as a non upgraded member, you know?

Thanks a ton bro for doing this! You seem like a hella chill user. I know I don't have the 500 posts, but fuck it, I just realized that and I might as well give this a shot. If I don't win, thanks for doing the giveaway. If I do win, thanks again for the giveaway. ? It does mean a lot to me.

Also I suck at graphics so bare with me.

And by the way, good luck on exams. ?

ChilliBeefSausage - January 27, 2014, 7:39 pm

I'd use it to buy my GF a nice valentines gift after having an argument with her the past two days running unfortunately. Good luck to all.

Why do you want this money?

Well, I want this money to possibly help purchase E-Books from here.

I currently have a bit of money saved up but nothing I can buy a decent E-Book with, with this $15 it can help me quite a bit purchase a very decent E-Book with original methods besides common ones.

I know $15 doesn't seem like much, but it can still come in handy and I have a chance to possibly flip it. Also it's still a very generous contest you're hosting regardless of the amount.

Thanks in advance for hosting this contest!

'Why do you want this money?'

I'm not going to beat around the bush and I'm going to be truthful.
Honestly, I just want the money to spend on some new games. Also, I might save up the money, if I win it, for a new headset as my turtle beaches are all tattered.

Corporate Slave - January 27, 2014, 11:55 pm

Why do I want the money?

I am being completely truthful, I am saving up for a decent gaming computer I know I could save up for something better I know it's $15 and it won't buy me a computer it but it will gratefully help me and help me get my computer quicker the computer I want is $600-$700 and it is hard for me to save money and now I am trying my best I really want this computer I am trying to buy and I know my parents wont buy it for me because they are low on money as well and I need to learn to actually pay things for myself as I need to do that in the real life and such. I always enjoyed gaming since I was a kid I got a Xbox 360 and been a gamer since the N64 and all the old games and I really enjoy PC gaming now and the computer I currently have will run let's say Minecraft on the lowest settings with Optifine with about 15 FPS which is really bad not trying to be spoiled but I want my gaming experience to be better on a better computer and not on a school laptop I got from my school. I don't play big games I play the normal decent games that wont take a $1,000 gaming computer too run. I know this is getting off topic now so I'ma end it here. Good luck to everyone that enters into this giveaway and thanks CyberneticTitan for the giveaway and congratulations on the 4,000 posts I'm at 3,000 right now hopefully to 4,000 soon! I know this is $15 and some people think it's nothing but I do not have a job currently and money is money too me as I'm saving up for something I really want.

ChilliBeefSausage - January 28, 2014, 4:46 am

"Why do you want this money?"

Honestly, I need to save up money until I have enough to repair my old pc, because that one is broken or to buy more RAM for this computer, this one only has 1 GB RAM. Too bad :!

Thanks for this contest!

kushalg94 - January 28, 2014, 8:02 am

I'm saving for my new iPhone so some extra cash would be nice

Rayyy - January 28, 2014, 8:21 am

Why do you want this money?

I simply want the money because I am saving up for my own personal website. Getting that money from you will definitely help me achieve my goal way faster, since I will have to pay for a coder because I cannot code the website myself. I recently just got scammed $20 as well (I have an open scam report against the person), so that will help me partially get back what I lost. Thanks a lot for the generous contest!

I will lol, and it's not like I want some $2,000 gaming computer just a $600-700 computer that can run normal, casual games.

I have decided on the winner:

Spoiler (Click to View)

The winner is Gambino:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4025494&pid=37978239#pid37978239>

I share his passion to spend some cash on school projects. Not only does it show his interest, motivation, and enthusiasm about the project, but it also demonstrates that he values acheiveing a decent mark.

Me and my friends recently spent $60 on a video project.

@Bitmoney, @Bezo,

I appreciate your real honesty :P

You will each receive $2.

@Almost everyone else

$15 will do little change into why you need this money.
