Thread: Present/Date ideas for my Girl's birthday

ijkirsc - January 28, 2014, 2:54 pm

Wondering what kind of ideas you people can offer me to get my girl for her 23rd birthday. We have been together 5 years I've already have a few gift idea's but cool date ideas are not my creative strong suit.

She's had a long, stressful year and I just want to do something special for her. Any ACTUAL suggestions are greatly appreciated.

Make something like an "inside gift." Just something that only you and her would understand, maybe you'll have to handmake it or whatever.

Or a nice dinner. Lol

Tequila and Sex

Every girl wants that

Spa day or dinner, show, and a nice hotel for the night in the city (if you aren't already in the city).

think of your past conversations with her...what has she hinted at? what does she like but never gets to indulge on? if all else fails, taking her out somewhere nice to eat is foolproof
