Thread: what would happen if warn level got 100%?

(?`?)?(??? - January 31, 2014, 8:48 pm

?I'm noob.I can't find any answer from help document.what should I do to let the warn level down?
And what gonna happen if it rose to 100%?

Timberwolf - January 31, 2014, 8:49 pm

You would get a ban once it reaches 100%.

SIM-353284 - January 31, 2014, 8:49 pm

You would die of an unknown cause. ?

SIM-214922 - January 31, 2014, 8:49 pm

you claim to be a noob. and you donated $20 to a community you know nothing about.

makes sense.

it gets you banned..

Xinipot - January 31, 2014, 8:50 pm

You would get banned if it got that high.

Warning level is from getting reported (I believe) so just chill it out a bit, it should go down over time.

If you really want to know, Omni will personally come to your house, login to his admincp from your computer and ban you, then he will bring his own baseball bat and continue to smash your monitor, he will then delete your system32.
