Wow, why did you increase it to $2.30 from $2.20? I wasn't going to outbid you, $2 is my buying limit.

:P it seemed pretty sketchy the way you said it though. I haven't scammed anyone on HF, why would I do it for $2.59. Normally when dealing with currency people hand the money over before they get their product ^.^

The guy that scammed me was an ub3r with like 300 rep. Apparently someone bought the account. I can never make a clean deal on this site. I guess its just bad luck.

I'm not sure of the going price of ub3r accounts, but, I have to assume it's above $2.59, or whatever you agreed to pay him.
