Thread: Proficient doxer and web detracer looking for a group

Dubitus™ - February 18, 2014, 12:59 pm

Hello, I'm Dubitus. I have 9 years of experience in doxing and web detracing.

Let me just start that usually fellow doxers dislike the word "proficient" behind the doxer, so consequentially they dox the doxer, thinking that they're proving a point. You aren't.

So in an attempt to go against that logic, you can find my personal information (accurate) on the web just by using Google and my nickname. I have nothing to hide. Just don't send pizza with pineapple. I strongly dislike pineapple, that would be just mean, especially if I'm hungry.

That aside, I would like to work with matured, educated and active people who are in need of a doxer and web detracer.

What is a web detracer?

From the meaning of the word "tracer", it's a person or a thing that traces. It's a barely discernible indication or evidence of some quantity, quality, characteristic, or expression.

Now a detracer does the opposite. He helps pointing out your evidences. Contextually, the evidences that you left on the web.

Edit: To be clear on web-detracing, I will NOT remove your fingerprints, but rather point them out.

I work on doxing and detracing. I can help track someone or pointing your tracks.

I work on both spectrums.

Dubitus has worked with me multiple times in the past year. He is an AMAZING doxer, literally can get you any info you need on anyone. He is truly a master and I respect him with my fullest extent. Sure I may not count for much on here, but I know this guy, and he is well worth your time.

Lovol - February 18, 2014, 1:03 pm

You seem like a smart cookie. Smart cookies are my favorite types of cookies; hope you find a group.

I decided that the only way to check his accuracy is to have him DoX me.

You seem like an ACTUAL high quality DoXer, and not those shitty DoXers that are able to find your fucking name and that's it. Doesn't surprise me you're apart of Null either, good job. I like you.

Is it possible to get a vouch-DoX on myself?

I've been doxing for somewhat 9 years. Yes, it's really 9 years. Reminds me the times of hi5. ?

My information is atleast 90% accurate, and I'm being modest. You can check by the vouches and high-profile people on my thread. ?

PM: I've been flooded by PMs asking for web-detracing (currently 16), so I'll be on standby until I've helped them. If I have not PM'd you back, it's because I need to first finish my pending jobs.

He meant that it's currently 16 people who has been messaging about it.

If I'm not incorrect, he's above the age of 20.
