Well quote notification is a great feature to get updated to your posts.
Since hf doesnt have that, it will be cool change

But as usual everything has drawbacks, people like vitani's mate will get mad.

Lol

What do you all think about this.

Many of these suggestions MAY have cool uses, but think about how often someone, somewhere on this forum is quoted. This would cause loads of unnecessary server queries and larger loads.

If you're like me, you check "your posts" religiously to see if anyone else posted.

I'm sure Omni is getting tired of reading suggestions that have already been suggested ALL THE TIME. It's even been STICKIED AS DENIED, OP.

Read this: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=3723065>

Or, you can read the sticky that tells you what you're not allowed to suggest.
