Thread: [\[Review\] Dance in the Vampire Bund](#)

Kina - February 20, 2014, 6:21 am

I am still looking for a new graphic for this. While I like the one Harmony made for this it is a series specific graphic and would like one that is a bit more broad. PM me if you can help.

Also, sorry about the inconsistency of my reviews, lately I've just been doing them whenever I feel like it as I have a couple of personal things going on. While I plan to still do them, they will become less frequent, as some of you may have already noticed. We'll see where things take us though. ?

Synopsis

The story revolves around Mina Tepes, princess-ruler of all vampires, and her protector -- Akira. Like other vampires, Mina has been in hiding with her people for many years. Seeking to end centuries of isolation, Mina gains permission to create a special district for vampires, "The Bund,"[4] off the coast of Japan by paying off the entire national debt of the Japanese government. Mina then reveals to the world the existence of vampires and her desire for both races to live together. Tensions, however, run high as fearful humans and extremist vampire factions are plotting to assassinate Mina Tepes before she has a chance to make her world-changing announcement.

Characters

Yuki Saegusa

A human that is part of the Student Council. She has a crush on Akira, becoming depressed at the fact that his attention is focused more on Mina. She was at first afraid of vampires, but later befriends Mina, especially since for a time she was the only member of the Student Council attending school and also due to the fact that the Student Council Office was still damaged by the attack, leaving Yuki to work in Mina's office. She is also a writer, but is embarrassed at the idea of anyone reading her stories, yet Mina and her maids become a big fan of them.

Akira Kaburagi Regendorf

Growing up in the world of humans, Akira met Mina as a child and became strongly attached to her, making her a promise to always protect her. This became a reality later in his life, when it was revealed by his father that Akira's purpose for being born was to protect Mina. Akira cares deeply for Mina, going so far as to protect her at the sacrifice of his own body if need be. Akira is from clan of gaia which is a clan of werewolves, because of this he has incredible resistance to physical harm and amazing regenerative abilities, in addition to fierce raw strength. After vampires are revealed to the world and he is forced into protecting Mina constantly, he comes into conflict with his fellow human students, almost all of whom immediately treat him with distrust and hate for supposedly siding with the vampires.

Warning: Adorable loli alert
Mina Tepes

The ruler of all vampires, (she is the daughter of Vlad Tepes aka Dracula) Mina Tepes first met the protagonist Akira when he was a child. As a vampire, Mina never ages, and as such her body is usually that of a prepubescent girl (although this doesn't stop her from showing off her body at every chance that she gets). She appears at first very haughty and self-indulging, but is in truth very protective of her fellow vampires that she rules over. She will do almost anything to protect their future, even if it means risking her own life. Despite her occasionally harsh treatment of Akira, she cares deeply for him and truly loves him in the best way that she can manage, considering her stature in the vampire world.

My Opinion

Alright, this is this best Vampire anime I have seen. I wasn't a big fan of Rosario + Vampire and Fortune Arterial was good but whatever. This one is the best in my opinion. The only drawback to this show was the first episode. Usually people tell you not to drop a show based on the first episode but I dropped this show like twice because of the first episode. Don't worry, hang in there champ, you won't regret it. The first episode is a back story type episode, to establish a setting but they just went about it poorly I think. One of the better things about this anime, besides the super adorable, super strong, loli main character, was the animation. I thought the animation was on point. It isn't really as beautiful as other shows but the art style is solid, definitely not a drawback. Which is a good thing. Overall though, just know that I am calling this the best Vampire anime I've seen to date. The reason it's not a 10 however is because of the bad first episode and the lack of a season 2. (For now) (Its been 4 years, it's probably not coming) (Keep looking forward to Highschool of the Dead) (Parenthesis)

My Rating - 8/10

*This is an AMV, gonna start using them here to give you a better feel of what the show might be, if you think it could spoil you, don't watch it because I disagree, my reviews are virtually spoiler free ?

Lol, If I was to suggest which one to watch first I would say this one, better story, and ending. Noucome was just hilarious though.

But i have already downloaded noucome.

I will finish Baka To Test s2(only 3 epsodes left) tonight and start watching Noucome while downloading Dance in the Vampire Bund.

After that >

Wow lol, the only mistype that makes sense happens. I meant happy to not be bored now.

I really hope I can major in Music though, I love it and dont want to be locked into IT but its about the only other thing Im good at and have taken a high school classes for that doesnt suck (Core Classes ugh)

I also plan to take Japanese for obvious reasons as well as Philosophy.

My Chemistry teacher said that if there is any class you need to %100 take its Philosophy.

lol, we just turned my review into a future discussion thread.
YOLO ?
This is the 2nd most replies one of my reviews have ever got.
Pet Girl of Sakurasao says GOML ?

Pet Girl of Sakurasao says GOML ?I think music is better for you than IT, don't let IT kill your love with music.

BTW i hate chemistry, those chemical reaction make me ?

Dance in the Vampire Bund says just wait and see i will surpass you. ?

Its not that IT would kill it, I just wont be able to major in music if the job market isnt good enough/my old teacher tells me Im not talented enough for it to be worth it.

Dont get me wrong, I wouldnt hate doing IT by any means, just dont love it as much as music, and its not as easy for me. ?

My chemistry teacher was the coolest, and a great teacher. Made it better.

Yeah, There isnt a huge point in majoring in something that there is no job market for either. It would be a waste.
