GreenTea - February 23, 2014, 1:35 pm

I just joined File.Ice and I tried doing something to earn some money, but no luck I didn't earned a buck, please can you help me ?

To earn good amounts on PPD you need to invest on youtube views, comments and likes, that's the only way that works otherwise you'll only make a few cents per day

I clicked on this for two reasons. First was to tell you this was super LQ. Second, you made the title, "I don't earn nothing[/b] with File-Ice. Maybe it is because you don't have proper grammar. People aren't going to download something that looks shitty.

First of all I don't know where is the problem with my grammar and what's wrong with the title, second, you have to be dumb to come here only to tell me that this is super LQ.I really thought HF has serious members, but I doubt it, there are indeed good members, but then there are those who only see the bad things.Plus I really put effort in it to make it look good, check the video if you want <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NOgngYfooHQ>

that's the problem, you are assuming people will download the file despite any errors you made, the reason big PPD earners make money, is because their downloads look super high quality, no one is going to download your file out of pity

The title should be: I don't earn anything. Don't and nothing are two negative statements thus making an affirmative statement which states you are earning money instead of not earning. Now, for your grammar mistakes in that paragraph alone are:

First of all, I don't know where the problem lies in my grammar. Secondly, you have to be dumb to come here only to tell me that this is super LQ. I really thought HF has serious members - but I doubt it. There are indeed good members - but then again, there are those who only see the bad things.

In this case Fire did a mistake too :/

Despite that I know 2 other languages(English and Romanian) plus my mother language(Hungarian) I think I didn't made a really huge mistake in my grammar.Plus I learned English from the internet and online games, so thats why probably my grammar is not ace, people don't know grammar.
