So I've seen A LOT of great results posted by our lovely HF members - and that's really good!

But compared to them, I find none.

I know all the basics, I can SE very well...etc, but maybe it's just luck?

I'm failing to find much results, and I know everyone likes to keep their methods to themselves, but I would really like some more instructions or tips for intermediate ewhorers.

Any tips guys?

Find a really good website or some other niche. Once you do, don't share it with nobody. Give the pervs actual shows so you can return and make more money. Dig deep into Google or come up with your own idea. Good Luck!

Success rates on known sites I find is usually 1/25. One out of every 25 people you talk to will buy from you.

Yeah sounds simple, but finding that site is personally hard for me :/

I make money 80% of the time. It is really simple for me :)

It did take time to find my niche.

Try to find unsaturated sites. That is a good start-
