Thread: How fast you usually rank your youtube videos ?

?Marketer - February 28, 2014, 1:20 pm

I Were wondering how fast people rank their videos. I recently started CPA and noticed that things aren't like 3-4 month's ago and i'm gettin views extremely slow from U2BViews, Vagex etc... I Have tried rank one vid for almost 2 weeks now its not even that saturated and it's still not in top 100. I Started think is Youtube even worth to do anymore should i move to SEO ?

I get mine ranked within 24 hours of posting it.

Its worth it if you know what to look out for and what to do,its been harder to do it on youtube due to them quickly banning and removing videos but its very easy if you take correct precautions like buying HQ views,HQ comments and likes then you dont want to leave a download link in the video right when you post but after a day or so.Then you have to create your own content and video,never use somone elses its plain stupid and the removal chance is MUCH higher.

Those are some quick things I can think of I do to rank my videos on youtube,everyone has their own special tricks to keep it alive and to reel in people.

Yotube is still a VERY viable place to try and get people :)

Normally a few weeks, due to me using free forms of views/comments/likes and YouTube being slow to update the stats.

Backlinking from multiple sources is vital.

If you want to hit the top 100, you'll need to have backlinks to a website/post that pertains to the actual niche.

I say a perfect ratio is as follows:

Day 1: 90% from your backlink website/post | 10% random or seemingly random

Day 2: 65% from your backlink | 10% from someone who "shared" your backlink | 25% random

Day 3: 40% from your backlink | 25% from shares | 45% random

Day 4: 25% from your backlink | 50% from shares | 25% random

---- Now is the perfect time to post another video/niche from the same backlink source/site

Day 5: --- Now you should have real traffic hitting you like mad!

Random traffic should be either paid for and backlinked to random sites

OR

Actual real traffic.

Im buying them aswell, with the new update there are very few places where u will get them for free, and not get "busted" by youtube.
