I assume since you stated that you get BTC from websites, are you using BTC faucets? Like the ones that give you free BTC for completing captcha?

Thanks.

Then why make a thread when you're not selling it yet? You should make the thread when you're ready to sell it.. hence it's a market, not a "Coming soon" section.

Also, consider giving a vouch copy to someone who will write a review, and/or discount the very first copies heavily, like the first 5 users get %75 off etc. That would help get reviews to reassure buyers if you're confident this is not a public method.
