Do you have any products?: No, however I am in the process of making a line of good eBooks, as well as looking into explore getting in holding my own VPN service.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I want to join because I want to expand my knowledge on making money online. I feel as if one person can do good, but as a group, something greater can be done. I have seen many groups that have been successful, and I want to experience working in a group instead of independently and overall just grow and learn more about making money online.

How would you benefit the group? I can share my knowledge with other members, as well as contribute to group projects, or do things like advertise.

Do you have any products?: Profit Plus, ExtraVPN, and I'm planning to release more.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I'd like to join because I've been making money online for 2 years, but I still want to learn more. I personally know Ty and I know that this group must have a lot of knowledge behind it and that's one of the main reasons I'd like to join. I also want to meet like-minded people and potentially people that I can partner up with to release new products.

How would you benefit the group? I can benefit the group by sharing methods, knowledge, and advertisement knowledge. I can help release new products and keep the group active.

Do you have any products?: None atm. Have an idea for a product I think will thrive and sell well. Also have a vast knowledge of stressers after researching them and setting one up of my own.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: To help benefit and increase the sales of my products, and to have first-hand opinions on how I can better my products/creations from members of this group.

How would you benefit the group? I can do anything you'd ask. I'm loyal, hardworking, whatever you need, I'll make sure I'll get it done.

Do you have any products?: no

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: Before joining this forum and I had no idea of how I could monetize online, I joined hoping to learn new things about hacking. As I stayed I got attracted to other sections around the forum and I saw the monetization section. In this section I have never found an ebook that has actually worked - me and my friends split the price of ebooks but in the end we have only ever gained a loss. I would like to join Diamond marketers as I think I would benefit from learning but at the same time helping others.

How would you benefit the group?

I would benefit the group as I would help others who may not understand a particular part and I myself have developed 2 highly profitable monetization techniques which are really useful. I may in the future create a highly priced ebook about them but atm it can get saturated if I share with more than just this group. I am highly dedicated and will show a lot of enthusiasm if I get accepted.

Also I have a fake scam report against me and the creator has apologised - its resolved

Thank you for reading :)

Peril - March 4, 2014, 11:18 pm

I'll be contacting you on skype I'll also send some proof over not just "I will make you money." I'll send my payment proofs and stuff :p

Do you have any products?: No

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: The group is about internet monetizers and I am proud being one. I individually help people to make money online for free and this, I think, is a strong point for me to get in the group.

How would you benefit the group? Umm..I don't speak too much but let me come directly to the point. I would help the group by doing giveaways, sharing methods (which I haven't till today) and all others stuff that I need to do when I am in a group!

Do you have any products?: No not any that I still sell.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I would like to join this group because I love making money online and I want to share my knowledge with other people and also learn new methods and tricks/tips to making money online.

How would you benefit the group? I would share my methods and knowledge with all members and really be an active member that is determined to learn and to teach people how to make money online. Currently I have a method to earn $20 an hour and would love to share it with the members and see what they think about it and hopefully see if someone can improve on it whether it be making it slightly more affordable or wherever it be making it bring in more income.

Thank you.

I believe that this group can become great and maybe even become official with a userbar! I know that both of the leaders are HQ and offer great products! I think that this would be a great opportunity to not only assist others, but to gain some marketing experience and knowledge for myself!

How would you benefit the group? I think that i could benefit the group by sharing many of the monetizing and marketing tips i have learned. I could also bring in new customers through sharing the sig and perhaps giveaways/sig contests in the name of the group! I'd really like to be a contributing member and get in on this budding group early!

Do you have any products?:I am currently selling spotify premium accounts, I would like to begin to release more products, and that is part of my reason for applying for this group. I would like to develop myself, and help develop others to be the best at monetization as possible

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?:

I feel that I have the ambition to make money that is required to be apart of this group, finding new methods to tweaking old ones. I would like to do this to benefit all of the group and also have the opportunity to learn from others

How would you benefit the group?

I have the mind set of monetization, what to buy, and when. What methods are saturated ,and when to bow out. I strive to make my own methods not just copy the others in the infamous "ebooks".

Additional notes :I know I do not have 300 posts, but it is simply because I am now just becoming active, and I do not post pointless random posts to boost my post count. Maybe by the time you read this I will have 300, maybe not, but I hope this factor is not considered as closely as what I feel I can contribute to the group.

Do you have any products?: Yes, I do. A product (still secret) I'll launch with Razor and I also sell a source code that is worth more then +5k$

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: Because I want to learn more about marketing and I'm always open for ideas. I also can share my wisdom and help a lot of people with making money because I got many methods making money or getting stuff for free.

How would you benefit the group? I can write an eBook for the people that don't know to make money. I can share my methods and help people with their earnings to make a good living.

Your choice of the color red for the thread design is less than lackluster. Bring the brightness up a bit, it's hard to read.

Do you have any products?: No, I do not.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I want to learn money making techniques, schemes etc. from the experienced members of the group and gain the ability and skills to create my own services and products, hence why I don't currently have any products of my own.

How would you benefit the group? Once I have learned the skills required to make money online, I would be able to help the newcomers like myself. I also consider myself a friendly person which i think is quite beneficial as it gives the group a good reputation.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I think everyone who replies to this thread loves making money, especially online. I have earned a few 100's online, but as the title says: I want to be a DIAMOND marketer ;)

How would you benefit the group?: I would share my knowledge and methods I've used with all the members and be an active member. I also can help with some favors. I have been on HF for over 3 years now. I wasn't really posting much, but learning and reading like every post. So I think I can tell I know some basics in different branches. Besides I would like to learn much more in this branche.

Thanks

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?:

Although I don't have many ways of making money online (I do have some methods)

I mostly want to join for the knowledge I could gain from the group,

I can pick up things pretty easily and love learning new advanced ways on online marketing.

How would you benefit the group?:

I have a few methods I could share with the group, I also learn pretty easily and could pick up methods very easily.

I'm constantly searching for new ways to make money online and once I learn the methods I can end up earning a fair lot after I know what I am doing.

FeaturedBMX - March 18, 2014, 2:09 am

Do you have any products?: I have several products but they are outdated. I have no problem buying new products to help the group in any way that I can.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I feel like we can bounce a lot of ideas and strategies off of eachother. A group to me is like a family. I am a very dedicated and loyal person. I am honest, and trustworthy. Sometimes, my honesty gets me in trouble, because people don't want to hear the truth. I am responsible, and I have a background in a lot of different areas and fields. I am self disciplined and I am not some teenager punk living with Mom and Dad, I am an adult out on my own. If you want someone you can trust, and count on, and come to with problems, I am the right person. I have been on this website going on 5 years now, and I am a veteran to this place.

How would you benefit the group? I have experience mainly with servers. Whether it is Windows or Linux (CentOS), I have a lot of experience running, managing, and securing servers. I have a degree in Information Systems Security, this is where I learned a lot of my hacking techniques. Sometimes it takes a hacker to catch a hacker. I know how to setup and manage IRC networks, botnets, VPN's, VPS's, etc etc. I have experience with RAT programs as well as Crypters. I have been out of the game for a little while, but I am looking to get back into a group to share my knowledge and expertise. I feel like I have a lot to bring to the table. I am a dedicated and loyal person. Once you have my loyalty, I will never look back. I want to learn everything that I can that can further improve the group as a whole.

Do you have any products?: None released yet. Working on opening a bot shop, and selling a high value crypter.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I would like to be part of a group where I can learn how to monetize better and bounce ideas off other like minded individuals. My number one goal here has always been to make money and I've done a decent about with mining, btc trades, and a few ebook sales. Right now I am making some pretty big investments with other users on the forums to open up a few products and I would really like to have the backing of a great group to help get me going. I'd like to join this group specifically because of the "monetizing" goals it has and all the HQ members you have recently recruited.

Do you have any products?: Not on HackForums, but I do have an ebook in the works.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I want to join so that I expand my knowledge in marketing. While I already have fair knowledge in marketing, I want to learn more. I feel as if one can never know enough about topics such as this one.

How would you benefit the group?: I bring vast knowledge to the table. I have tons of experience in investing (This is how I make a living) and marketing. One of my more successful online businesses is a Minecraft server I run. Over the course of it being online, it's made nearly $30,000, which is much more than most servers. This is the current sum of my sales:

My gross profit is about $25,600. (If more proof is need, such as a video, PM me and I'd be happy to provide it.) This is a perfect example of my marketing skills; I've got an extensive knowledge in enticing customers into buying things. I can help teach others in the group how to entice customers as I do.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I'd like to learn more about monetizing. I've been having so many issues, and so many setbacks, but I'm very interested in learning.

How would you benefit the group? I have foolproof ideas that require start up funds and am willing to share them. I'd also love to learn, and am very easy to get along with.

Why do you want to join the Diamond Marketers?: I am very dedicated to this profession. As I want to further my career at a top university in marketing, investing and management.

How would you benefit the group?: I would benefit the group, because i bring positivity to the table. I bring positivity to other people's projects, and I bring creativity and support to the table. I am very creative in ideas and how to better one anothers projects. I love support and giving advice. I do have money to invest and market which I will be using to spend.

Do you have any products?: I sold a method a while back when I first joined. Good method, yet the marketing aspect was not executed properly due to poor knowledge, back then of course.

How would you benefit the group?: I would benefit the group in a couple different ways. First off I am pretty good at graphic design so I would be able to create thread designs for the group. I have done a bit of research into psychology and persuasion techniques, so in the event that I had to sell a product I have a pretty vast knowledge on how to gain leads. And lastly, I am an innovator, always looking to discover new techniques and methods, so I would be able to provide many ideas for ebooks, along with graphically designing them, and marketing them.

-Edit | I hope you can look past the fact that I am neither l33t or Ub3r, if that truly is a restriction, I guess I will have to buy it then :).

I am extremely creative and think outside the box often, making my ideas truly unique. I am a niche developer, as well as a business owner for a branch within a company. I am online daily and would contribute to the team tremendously in terms of projects as well as ideas and just general team management.
