Leave the signature on for 2-days (48 hours)-- and with your post timestamp, I will be able to determine how long you have been wearing it. Once 48-hours pass through your post-time on this thread, I will PM you a random 3-character snapchat to keep! PLUS. When this contest is fully over (dates not chosen yet) we will PM two random chosen winners of a normal --> l33t -or- l33t --> ub3r upgrade, all expenses paid by us. That's literally it, all you have to do is wear the signature for 48-hours and you are entered into this upgrade raffle and will get a 3-character snapchat.

THANKS FOR JOINING.

You can just post or copy and paste that stupid acknowledgement thing while your chosen signature is put on. Thanks for entering.

You are not wearing your signature. Wear it now, the timestamp on your post determines how long you've been wearing it.

Sorry, I posted that when I didn't have it on, then I put it on, does that matter, or do you want me to repost the thing?
