Scammed $45 by Harold Finch - UID=1023225

Ok so I was buying Bulk premium 12 month spotify accounts of this guy, it went smoothly and seemed legit until he then sent me a message about investing into him and make money back, but I really needed the accounts so I went through with it. Then after I sent payment for the spotify accounts, he didn't send accounts nor respond to any of my messages, I have now disputed the paypal transaction as it was obvious he scammed me.

Off topic: Really needed these accounts as the first person I was buying them off wasn't online for the day so I went with this guy, I resell these to my mates and people on my RL facebook and they pay me upfront, so needed the accounts ASAP, but now this guy has scammed me and I have a lot of people waiting for me :/

I've sent u all items, never mind I'm not a scammer I have also some proofs of another person who could I scam but I didnt because I couldnt exchange his amount! Nothing to say

Just do screenshots with my pm with all spotify details LOL never mind, I don't care if people think that I'm a scammer or not.

Sent me all items?
Can we all see some proof that you sent me what I purchased?
didnt think so.

So you admit you are a scammer? Seems phishy to me.
Show proofs if you actually sent him the stuff.

Exactly.

He can't show proof because he never sent anything to me, didn't even reply to 1 of my messages after I sent money.

Well now I know that I shouldnt delete all my messages, look this member named franzl . He wanted to trade with me I said yes lets do it he went first and I didnt scammed him I gave him a + rep, write him a msg and ask him, I didnt scammed him. Why I should. And your dispute on paypal because your account was hacked is really dumb. Next time try to fuck with some other.

Look at you talking shit, what a coincidence you "deleted" your messages, ahah you gotta do better than that.

Scamming cunt. Grow the fuck up and if you're that desperate for money get a job you silly child.
