Thread: Is this allowed?

Infer - March 9, 2014, 11:15 am

I'm going to start a seeding service, where I charge people per day to seed their torrents on multiple servers. I think this is allowed as I read nothing against it in the rules but just wanted to be sure.

sounds like a pretty good service idea in my mind, if this works out and it is allowed GLWS!

wellager - March 9, 2014, 11:21 am

No it's not. You're condoning illegal downloading with this.

xhflhkeuhwguu34 - March 9, 2014, 11:23 am

It's allowed. Good luck selling it. ?

Look at the terms on the design, I think its #5

wellager - March 9, 2014, 11:23 am

Oh. If it's legal torrents, it should be fine.

GL with sales.

Thanks, just waiting on an Admin or Mentor to answer before I open it up.

He's not promoting it in his sales thread.

Yeah, here's the thread again. Accidentally removed it but its stated right in the terms

Not allowed. The discussion of torrenting is a no. I assume the same would apply here.

People have seedbox threads all the time, selling and teaching how to use them. Where does it disallow the talk of torrenting?

Found it, it disallows illegal movie torrents and movie watching sites, and as stated in the terms, illegal downloads are not allowed. It also doesn't completely disallow torrenting.

?BLacKiCetf2™ - March 9, 2014, 12:14 pm

I am pretty sure It is allowed as long as he doesn't seed Illegal stuffs.

Ryuusei Cartwright - March 9, 2014, 4:16 pm

Perhaps rename it to "P2P seeding service".

Omni once stated that websites with misspellings such as an example of "www.mojan.com" (instead of Mojang) should be referred to as "misspelling potential domains" and have promotional values of "great potential attention by misspelling" rather than "Great phishing and scamming domain".

Everything has good and bad intentions, and P2P is a way to spread files anonymously and differently; this does not at all imply or even suggest it has anything to do with torrenting files illegally.

Infer - March 10, 2014, 6:01 am

I think this is allowed but alas I need a response from staff, I went fully over the rules and no where does it outlaw any other torrents (besides movies) and seeding etc.

Eeluminati - March 10, 2014, 6:28 am

I thought RCDA was right, but looking in to it myself, I couldn't really find a definite answer. The Help Docs are being changed remember, I'd just wait for Omni to hopefully see this.

ven0m - March 10, 2014, 6:35 am

Any discussion related to Torrents are disallowed and a same assumption can be made regarding your service.

Indeed.

It would be a safe guess to think that this isn't allowed as things like accounts and invites are banned.

The rule here posits --

Quote:Movie Torrents, Download, and Illegal Viewing

Members are not allowed to use HF to spread illegal movie torrents or downloads. We also extend this to illegal viewing movie sites. HF is not a warez site.

The reason it is/may be disallowed/discouraged that Staffs cannot verify whether you are providing a legitimate service and may require off-site query/action which is cumbersome.

Infer - March 10, 2014, 6:53 am

I think the rule is iffy, if you look at it you could argue as long as movies and illegal downloads aren't permitted it is allowed. I won't seed any illegal torrents as stated in torrents

Not really, torrents are also used for open source projects such as Linux distros.

...I then said that as long as it was legal it was fine, although I'm not sure if it's true.

Zixx - March 10, 2014, 6:57 am

Well we will have to see what an admin or staff has to say about this. I'm on your side op I think it should be allowed.

Infer - March 10, 2014, 8:04 am

Yeah I mean it really isn't bad compared to a lot of things on here so I don't see why not, plus I disallow illegal torrenta

Tyler? - March 10, 2014, 8:13 am

I would assume since you know it'll involve pirated content, it isn't allowed.

I'd hold off until you can an official answer from Omni maybe.

Infer - March 10, 2014, 4:47 pm

I dont really know anything, the terms are all I need I believe.

Not allowed, torrent discussion is disallowed. Simple as that. Read the disallowed BH activities in the help documents.

?Fetz? - March 10, 2014, 7:21 pm

It isn't illegal. It isn't BH.

I can name MANY programs and projects that you can torrent that are 110% legit.

There you go.

Yeah I was wondering the same thing, although I PMed this to paradoxum so I will wait on his reply, I believe as long as I follow my terms it is following the rules as illegal torrents are disallowed, not legal torrents

It's legal unless you're doing it with pirated material. Remember, torrenting is not illegal, the material is.

Infer - March 11, 2014, 10:40 am

Service is disallowed as Paradoxum replied to me, sorry to see as I put so much time into this.
