I saw this in r9k and decided it would be a great to hear your inputs.

Would you rather die virgin but loved or die alone?

Loved by family, friends or etc.

Ephorize - March 10, 2014, 9:33 am

If I die alone, does it mean I have a list of people I've fucked? :D

If yes, I'd die alone.

If yes, I'd die alone.

If you look at it that way then yes that may be an upside of dying alone. The thing you're gonna die thunking nobody actually cares for you.

That time comes when I'm dying, so I'll be gone soon, so it won't bother me for long.

Actual good logic right there, no one emotionally hurt and u had a great time too

I would rather die as a virgin but loved then to be alone.

Free Mason - March 10, 2014, 10:01 am

Die alone would rather have had a great time and dieting by myself wouldn't be that bad.

Uchiha Itachi - March 10, 2014, 10:27 am

Virgin but loved... that's all that matters. Love.

Mitchell_H - March 10, 2014, 10:30 am

I'd say I'd rather die a virgin, but be loved. I don't think I'd enjoy being alone for the rest of my life.

JF.Apple - March 10, 2014, 10:31 am

Hard to choose, but I think I would go with dying alone, because nobody would miss me and have the pain of grief.

Troye - March 10, 2014, 11:52 am

Well technically you die alone, so I'll choose option 2. Although neither of these (hopefully) will happen but right now I would be in the second options list.

as long as i was able to take a near-fatal dose of LSD on my death bed then i wouldn't give a fuck if i died alone. you're going to be dead anyways, so id rather not be a virgin =/ why wouldn't i want to have experienced sex as a human being. what is love without sex? a waste of time, thats what

Rias Gremory - March 10, 2014, 1:31 pm

Would I be alone for my entire life, or just die alone?

futana - March 10, 2014, 5:21 pm

I would rather die a virgin but be loved by friends and family, maybe even a romantic partner.

Right now I'm going through a phase that may or may not pass, but love is pretty important to me. I do my best to give and receive love as much as I can, and I can't imagine a world without it.

I like how you think. From what I've gathered from the replies, sex>=love. I'd think not. It's true that love is dull without sex but sex without love is much worse.

Man fuck that I'm gonna die alone... Seriously

Think of it as of now, imagine you're a virgin.

Just die alone. Like nobody cares.

Failedattempt - March 10, 2014, 8:32 pm

I would rather die a virgin and be remembered and loved.
A clear and simple answer. Whoever answers otherwise is selfish.

Dio Brando - March 10, 2014, 8:52 pm

Wait , aren't we all dying alone anyway , it's a trick question isn't it.

Tomorrowland - March 10, 2014, 8:57 pm

This is a hard one.. I don't understand why people ask these silly question's.. But in the end.. I rather be loved and, love someone.. There is more to loving then the sexual interactions..

d4rkj4y - March 10, 2014, 9:58 pm

I don't really give a shit, because once I'm dead I won't remember?

MeowMisser - March 12, 2014, 10:17 am

To be loved. To me it's a fairly easy choice, just because I can't function without people being close to me.

neverhave1ever - October 30, 2018, 8:33 pm

Id rather die a virgin. I'll respect either choice but I just cant be alone. Its the worst feeling in the world to me.

SIM-1349466 - October 30, 2018, 8:36 pm

Die alone. What if you die a virgin, but you're also alone? Regardless, if the death isn't horrible, it's fine by me.

Zeus - October 30, 2018, 11:09 pm

I would like to be loved. <3

SIM-3257834 - October 30, 2018, 11:15 pm

I'll never die alone as long as I got God and Jesus.

Zeus - October 30, 2018, 11:42 pm

I would like to pass being loved.
