Dean Winchester? - March 11, 2014, 12:51 pm

Hello fellow GTA Gamers off Hackforums!

- I've decided to create, after being requested to do so, a Official Hackforums crew.
I decided to name the crew "Hackforums Official" as it is easy to remember and easy to notice.
The crew tag is "HACK" due to the fact that we are a member of "HackForums" and this is only for this forum's members.

- If you press anywhere in this thread you will be redirected to the Hackforums Official crew roaster and you are free to sign up.
I would recommend you to hit me a PM with your Rockstar Games Social Club username so I can accept you before looking into the others.
I'd rather not have anyone from outside the forums join this crew.

- The current members are \(44\): I'm too lazy to add them to the list.

I believe there is space for ~500 people in the crew, so I don't think it will fill up in a couple of months :p

If you request an invite in the crew I will be sure to Invite you :)

I will be online playing a bit on PS3.

My "Active Crew" is this one so you are free to join me :)

PM me if you want to add me as a friend on PSN, can't add to many though because this is my main and I have other friends too :p

Troye - March 12, 2014, 1:13 pm

It's the name of the crew, does not necessarily mean that it is the official crew.

I don't think Omni would ever care about GTAV anyways, and I do not know how I could ever get him to come here and approve it without PMing him, something I am not sure I am even allowed to do.

This could easily simplify "Gaming nights" where you have to add 40 people for playing together, when you're in a crew you can just open a Crew Only game session.

I barely play anymore but when I do I usually join a couple friends or I press the Join crew Members for playing with someone I am familiar with.

You're free to use this crew however you'd like.

Also; Thanks to ShadowGod190 (I don't know your HF name, sorry) for the new Crew Avatar ?, I was too busy to make one myself (that didn't suck ?)
