Thread: Why people wear Religious symbols?

Football - March 11, 2014, 11:49 pm

I know this is a stupid question but will anyone be able to help me out? :(

Why some people might wear Religious jewelry?

Yes, I mean headscarfs are worn by Muslim women or not?

So, it's a religious symbol, isn't it? (:

i must say... many of them wear as they trust on the god or devotee whom accessories they wear and they think that this will be like a good charm for them as in if they wear and follow that devotee they help him/her to get success or could help them to complete any work easily which is not easy at all...

and some people say that they wear because it will protect him/her from evil powers and from any misshappening :lol:

and but now a days,girls n boys wear these accessories like fashion apparels,they have nothing more than this in wearing that..

this is what i feel,from ma surrounding in delhi (INDIA)
