newvibe - March 27, 2014, 1:54 pm

I have this guy one of the assignments to write for me and I have to say it is high quality work for someone his age. And the price was cheap too!.

Quality: 9/10

He linked in all information that I didn't even think off, he wrote it so perfectly and with one of the best grammar I have ever seen.

Originality 10/10

None of the information that was written was plagiarised or re-worded, the assignment was 6 pages long and all original written information. I tested it in many different ways and used online plagiarism checkers and it passed 100%

Grammar 9/10

99% of the grammar is very accurate and nice, it is like reading something a professor would write, I changed couple of words because I know my teacher won't be expecting me to write but that's pretty much it.

Teachers feedback 10/10

the teacher seen it and she was astonished of how good it was, she didn't even suspect a thing and she loved it all.

Notes:

The only thing that needs adding in to the assignment is the bibliography as there are some information that you won't expect someone knowing them from top of their head. But doing a quick search you can gather different emails.

I will be using this service again 100% sure.

Thanks.

I hired someone to create the thread design. I told him what to write and I did not go over it before paying him.

In the thread I also state that I have an editor that goes over my work to correct my mistakes.

Thank you for the feedback and I will change that soon.

I think he had some personal and hospital issues... BUT HERE is my HONEST REVIEW:

Received his work after 3-4 days of contacting him. It was only a book questionnaire that required 10 questions to be answered.

The work seem extremely rushed and the sentence structures were weak, no well thought out analysis. I could out-write the book report he provided as a 10th grader.

Hard to contact through skype, only sent me 1,2 messages a day. Did not meet the my deadline either.

The only upside is that he gave it to me for free at the end(since he didn't meet deadline and took a while to reply everytime), however it is written at a 8,9th grade level.

This is my honest review--- Im not pissed since I got it for free... just being brutally honest.
If anyone wants to see the assignment he provided PM me.
