Website is an unknown piece of shit and the template is overused. did you really need to make a LQ thread about this?

Fiora - March 17, 2014, 5:11 pm

He probably created the site to show of his uber l33t skills.

Anxuein - March 17, 2014, 5:13 pm

Oh come on guys, maybe this was his first deface. Give the user a bit of slack.

NotCoolBro - March 17, 2014, 5:14 pm

Giving him slack leads the forum into a pile of shite and everyone thinking its cool and skilled to do this shit. Stamp out the bad habits early and you don't have to do with them later on

You know this is not the first time someone posted defaced site here right?

LQ USER + DEFACED A SITE = NOOB

HQ USER + DEFACED A AITE = AWESOME? ?

LOL.

LOL.

I can simplify that for you:

DEFACE A SITE = SKID

there is no point in defacing any site except to look cool on the innerwebs

vaan - March 18, 2014, 9:34 am

In many instances, website defacement is done purely for fun. And in this case your right.

And i know that you know there are many other reason not just to be "cool".

TheRelativeSingularity - March 18, 2014, 9:43 am

OP cant even into HTML, so 1337 bro.

even if it is his first deface, stealing some other guys deface page.... srsly LMAO

Kali999 - March 18, 2014, 9:45 am

Lol you posted your Skype, looks like you want attention

Actually, any user no matter how 'high quality' they are that boasts about defacing the index of a site or making a big presence of themselves is a fucking skid
