No the rights were just not in anybodys possession for very long.

I was the previous owner and before that was the Coder who had someone else selling.

How would we go about scraping usernames for this? Making a username list manually would be very tedious and time waisting.

Treasure ? - March 26, 2014, 6:18 pm

Well I'm not sure what usernames you would want to crack but you could do it manually, or just Google a common username list,I provide a 10k pw list
