Really nice the dates seem amazing thinking about buying xD
I've been using the method for a few years, and investing all I've made into making more. It takes some initial investment (around ~$10) to get started. Investing more makes more profit.

On average, how long does the set-up take before you can start making money? also is the can you instantly "cash-out" or do you have to wait a certain time frame beforehand. Very interested.
