Thread: Posting Restriction

AlfieHF - March 20, 2014, 2:56 pm

I am new around here and I see there is a 120 second posting restriction. Is this just for all normal members (non-upgraded) or does it stop a certain number of posts?

Thanks!

Tenaxium - March 20, 2014, 2:57 pm

It reduces to 20 seconds for ub3rs, that's what I know.

Yeah, it is reduced for l33ts too but I couldn't tell you how much to. Maybe 40-60 seconds?

Well yes but is it permanent or will it go after X amount of posts?

Maybe until you hit a certain prestige. Just dont spam post and read some replies and I think you will be ok.

Ahh so I have this restriction until I upgrade my account?

If so, can a moderator please close this thread?

It is permanent without upgrading. Check out some amazing other features:

So glad this restriction wasn't in place when I joined HF. Would have probably driven me away.

Prestige hasn't been implemented into site benefits yet, Omniscient was considering using it for SRPP.

It's 30 seconds for l33ts, not aware of Ub3r limits.

Oh right, never seen it abbreviated before. Why would he use it for that?

As it's the one intellectual forum on here, and he recently made it L33t/Ub3r, to stop troll's, but by using prestige it would allow in affect HQ normal member to be active in that section. That's my guess anyway, I've seen no proof he actually has considered using it (but I believe it's a good idea)
