Thread: I feel like this section is full of bullshit.

kenzeeman - March 21, 2014, 3:28 pm

Can someone just post a method to make, even small amounts, of money? Every thread here is a referral scam, a pay-to-use, a PM me for method thread or an outdated method.

I'm looking for like three dollars a day for little work, is that so much to ask? I don't want to PM people, pay for some (shitty) eBook or click your link to register under your referral.

Can anyone help me? Thank you.

Try PPD, very easy to get atleast $3 per day.

Use google to find out how to make money with it since you don't want to sign up under someones referral and be mentored :)

<http://qmee.com> - make $0.10 VERY quickly and you can cash it out to your account instantly

If you want that low of a regular income just flip stuff. Easiest monetizing there is. It's time consuming and can be physically exhausting depending on how deep you get into it, but it's easy.

Buy something on Craigslist. Wait a few weeks and resell it, or sell it on ebay. Buy something on ebay, wait a while and resell it. Or sell it on Craigslist. You can also check the "Free" section of Craigslist and sell that stuff at garage sales or online for a very low price. And if you fix something up you're also adding to the value of it. So if you get something for free and have handyman skills you can only improve your 100% profit margin.

If you want $3 a day, look into trying PPD or Postloop. $3 a day is very attainable with either.

Which PPD services are ideal? Fileice?

EDIT: It was censored. # = F . i . l e ice? Not sure why it'd be censored...

I agree with what you're saying but I will defend one point you touched upon and that's about people asking you to PM them for a method.

People do this for one of several reasons listed below.

The person doesn't want their method to be leaked.

They don't want to give the method to people who are scammers etc.

And if I we're the person I would be thinking if he can't be bothered to pm me then why does he even deserve the method in the first place?

I use Fil*eice, one of the best networks out there.

It's sad how everyone looks for 'methods'. I see these "Make money now" threads, where the OP has people PM him, and those threads get a crazy amount of responses.

And most of the threads here.. /sigh ...They do "work".
But everyone here is so adamant about doing nothing and still getting money.

The best method out there?
Is the one you create; after tons of trial and error.

My best advice I can give to anyone willing to do work:
Learn. Learn all you can about all the kind of Internet Marketing.
Learn how websites work, backlinks, search engine ranks, and selling/pre-selling.

Knowledge pays off.

I feel like those users are offering methods and gathering referrals. Kinda makes me angry that I can't do anything about it. lol

Not all e-books are bad. I actually got one for free the other day of a ebay niche and I made an easy 10$ from just posting up something to sell.

I think the referral system is good, because I want my referrals to be succesful and make money so I help them to the best of my ability.
Their succes = my succes.

I'm just upset they're posting in the Monetizing Techniques section instead of the Referral section.

Yeah oke you've got a point there.
But some people just want to help :)
