Thread: [\[GET\] Diablo III : Reaper of Souls free by playing Flappy Reaper](#)

MangaFan33 - March 23, 2014, 4:00 am

You can get a free Copy of Diablo III: ROS if you beat the score of 163 in Flappy Reaper. Just click on the link and play. (I hate it even more than Flappy Bird...)

BTW, the ref link below is from AtheneWins, a YouTuber dedicated to charity, but i guess most of you should have heard about him. When buying the game via this link, there is some money going to a charity organization called Save The Children. (It's a special discount offer, so you get the game cheaper AND donate to charity. Pretty nice.)

Have fun raging.

Nothing about D3..

If you beat the score you get a free copy. I don't know if they have cheat protection, but i guess so. Maybe someone finds an exploit :D

They do have cheat protection on. No use in cheating

Awww only made it to 10. This is hard to do man!

You have to beat 183 now, and stay on the top 100 to get the key. That game is way too difficult though. Horrible background and color contrast and its using a mouse, which is a pain in the ass for those types of games.

Thanks for the share though!

I know, this is what makes this game so great :D It is the super rage mode version of Flappy Bird. It's so fucking annoying. BTW my best score is 50 atm...

That's definitely not going to happen. The score now is 369.
